Dear Nat:

Practically had to be insulted into going to see "All My Sons," because I wanted to remember it fondly after having seen it in New York last summer.

I went last Thursday night, and thought the Playhouse presentation even superior, thanks much to your fine performance. First time I have seen you in many years, Nat, since before I went into service-- in the days of Don Moll, Norman Rutkin and Len Persky. If you ever see any of them anymore, extend my best.

Congratulations to you, Nat, on a superior performance, and extend my best too to Dorothy Scott and Jack Teter for their exceptional jobs.

And my best personal wishes to you---

Leonard Mendlowitz
