

Telephone
No. 1235.

RAUH BROS. & CO.

Men's Furnishing Goods.

ENOCH RAUH.
MARCUS RAUH.
ABE L. RAUH.
CHAS. M. RAUH.

Nos. 800 & 802 LIBERTY ST.

PITTSBURGH.

Tuesday - 1895
June 11th, 1895.

My own darling Enoch:

When this reaches you, the thirty-eighth anniversary of your natal day will have dawned, and with its in-coming I want to congratulate you heartily on its advent and to send you a loving kiss - my only souvenir of the occasion. This day has for us a dual meaning and pleasure. Besides thanking God each year that he brought you into the world as a complement to my life, I love to remember this time as the occasion of plighting our troth for life! - As each circling year brings me again to this day, I fondly remember the evening when you made me the very happiest girl in the world - when you raised me from wacking doubt into blissful certainty! - No small won-

And thus that I should cling with love and deepest affection to this day! - It seems but yesterday that we were babes in arms, then came the morning of our lives when they became as one, now is the day of our married bliss, and soon we shall pass into the shade of evening, when life's work is done and spent! How cruelly swift the years pass us by, how hurried in their flight! Can you realize that it is already eight and thirty years since your life began, and seven since we bore eternal love & fidelity? Surely your life has been a noble, honorable, upright one, and our married years those of deepest, truest, tenderest happiness; therefore we can look back upon these years with comfort and peace, and trust that all our past joyful experience is but a prelude to a still more radiant, glorious future! May our lives be consecrated to each other,
to our children & to the good of others, and may the Almighty send us in the years to come the joys that arise from a deep-seated and enduring affection, and from children whom we hope will become

Telephone
No. 1235.

RAUH BROS. & CO.

Men's Furnishing Goods.

ENOCH RAUH.
MARCUS RAUH.
ABE. L. RAUH.
CHAS. M. RAUH.

Nos. 800 & 802 LIBERTY ST.

PITTSBURGH,

189

useful & honorable members of humanity! May God spare us to each other for years & years to come, that we may hand in hand, garlanded with the roses of love & devotion, share each others joys & divide each others sorrows!
May He send you a superabundance of health, content & prosperity!
I am indeed a happy woman in your love, and each year I pause and breathe a prayer of gratitude that we are spared to each other again on this day! God bless you and keep you well! - The children are well & send love & congratulations, as do Mamma, Belle, Bert & Edna. Belle is sick on the couch with a miserable cold, else she would have written you. - In love everlasting and enduring through all time - Yours! B. W. H.