Eternal Club,
c/o Miss Bessie Young, Pres.,
1704 Cliff St., City.

Attention Miss Bessie Young.

Dear Madam:

Enclosed herewith please find a "group" invitation for a social affair to be held at the home of Miss Jeannette Neiberg, 70 Miller St., City, on Sunday, November 18, 1917, at 8 P. M., given by a group of young men who for the present are calling themselves "THE BUNCH", to reciprocate for the many joyous affairs held by the Eternal Club which some of us have attended and so nobly enjoyed.

As President of the Eternal Club, we ask you to stir a little enthusiasm into each and every member with regard to this affair, (although we do not think this is absolutely necessary-- we know they will do it without urging) for we intend to make this the one grand affair of our lives.

Should any of the members have any literature, songs, or programs of any kind, we would greatly welcome and highly appreciate its reserval for this affair, and those who haven't, we urge preparedness. We would thank you to investigate with reference to this and report to the writer both the name of the article (or program) and its author.

Trusting that all the members of the Eternal Club will be on hand promptly at the time and place indicated, and assuring a good time to all, we are

Cordially yours,

THE BUNCH,

Acting Chairman.

P. S. - - Will you kindly show this letter to all your members?
