VETERAN BUSINESS MAN EIGHTY YEARS.

M. Ohlman, in Business in Meadville Thirty-nine Years.

People who see Melius Ohlman, the veteran clothier, walking to and from his place of business every week day in the year, can scarcely believe that he has lived 80 years, but such is a fact. Last week Mr. Ohlman passed the 80th milestone, and he is a man remarkably well preserved, both mentally and physically.

Mr. Ohlman was born in Germany, June 7, 1834. In the year of 1854, at the age of 20 years, he decided to leave his native land and settle in America. He first located in Greenville.

In the year of 1858, Mr. Ohlman embarked in the clothing business at Conneautville, and in 1860 returned to Germany to claim the maiden of his choice as a life companion, and the union has been a most happy one.

A sad feature of the hour is the fact that Mrs. Ohlman is lying very ill at her home on South Water street and fears are entertained for her recovery.

In the spring of 1875 Mr. Ohlman came to Meadville to continue in the clothing business. He had a partner, Mr. Kingsbacher, and the firm was well known in the city under the firm name of Ohlman and Kingsbacher. Later the junior partner disposed of his interests to Mr. Ohlman and the firm name of M. Ohlman and Son took its place, and the store has occupied quarters in the Lafayette Block for 38 years.

YOUNG MEN'S HEBREW ASSOCIATION OF PITTSBURGH.

Charter Night Was Celebrated. Baseball News. Employment Bureau. Building Developments.

Music, mirth, a monologue and speech-making combined made the Y. M. H. A. Charter Celebration, held in the English room of the Fort Pitt Hotel last Sunday evening, an exceedingly enjoyable affair. The celebration was held to commemorate the granting of the Charter to the Young Men's Hebrew Association of Pittsburgh, and also served as a closing program for the successful 1913-14 season. Several hundred members attended.

Chief among the interests of the evening was the exhibition of the Charter. This has been transcribed beautifully and placed in a rich mission frame 4 feet by three feet wide. The entire effect is pleasing in the extreme, and caused much favorable comment.

The Charter will make a fine appearance, and be an article of continual interest when hung in the Y. M. H. A. The presentation speech was made by S. J. Horvitz, who with Peter Glick, had represented the Association in applying for the Charter.

President Harry J. Applestein, made the speech of acceptance, and also acted as Toastmaster. He touched briefly upon the history of the Y. M. H. A. and explained the causes for the delay in making application for the Charter. No difficulty was encountered after the application was made. After expressing his appreciation, in behalf of the Association, to those instrumental in securing the charter, President Applestein spoke of the advantages of being a chartered organization.

On the entertaining side of the program, Frank E. O'Brien, self-styled the "Irish Duke," pleased greatly with his "Irish" character stories and songs. Count Goldstein used his foreign twang and mannerisms to good effect in his playing and singing. N. Specter's piano playing added much to the evening's entertainment. The headliner, however, was the character singing of Peter Golden and Blondy Goldstein. This pair furnished some high class entertainment, and the gathering was not slow in showing its appreciation. Their work was roundly applauded.

Addresses of more than ordinary power and effectiveness were made by Messrs. Harry Ratner, Allan Davis, A. Oseroff, Dr. S. H. Ratner and Peter Glick. The keynote struck was the spiritual side of Y. M. H. A. work. The inculcation of and adherence to Jewish ideals, broader knowledge of Jewish history and tradition, and a striving for the finer things in life were recommended.

Nominations for three members of the Board of Directors were opened directly after the close of the regular program. The nominees are as follows: Richard Rauh, S. J. Horvitz, J. Leligsohn, L. Liechtenstein, Allan Davis, Harry Ruben, A. Oseroff, and Michael Rosenblum. Election will take place at the July business meeting.

The schedule for activities starting in the fall will probably be announced at the July meeting also.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU HAS MEN FOR SUMMER POSITIONS.

Success has brought the employment bureau of the Y. M. H. A. more work to do. During the past few weeks the bureau has received numerous requests from student members of the Y. M. H. A. for work during the summer months. The list includes law, medical and engineering men anxious for work in stores and offices. The employment bureau is desirous of placing as many of these applicants as possible, and suggests that firms in need of help get in touch with L. Lichtenstein or Henry Abrams of the bureau at once. The service is absolutely free to all concerned.

Game With Braddock Y. M. H. A. Sunday.

A hotly contested game is expected when the rival Y. M. H. A. teams meet at Moss Side Grove, Sunday June 14th. Last year Braddock won by the margin of one run, but the Pittsburgh team is out to turn the tables this year.

Reuben will twirl for Pittsburgh and Goody Rosenshine, the sensational youngster on this year's nine, will do the receiving. This boy has few peers as a catcher in amateur ranks. His pegging to bases features every game.

Several hundred rooters will accompany the team to Moss Side Grove.

Details for the new building are still being worked out, and will be announced shortly. The committee is in frequent conference with the Advisory Board and will be prepaid to submit an interesting proposition when the proper time arrives.

The first issue of the Y. M. H. A. Journal is being mailed to subscribers this week.

BRADDOCK Y. M. H. A.

Everything is in readiness for the second annual outing of the Y. M. H. A. of Braddock, to be held at Moss Side Grove, June 14th, Sunday.

Preparations have been made for the parking of automobiles and a man will be in charge. The Pittsburgh Y. M. H. A. baseball team are optimistic in evening up for the defeat of last year, and are bringing a large following of rooters.

Busses will meet the crowds at McKeesport and everything for convenience of the picnickers has been listed.
