ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1. All the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, real, personal, and mixed, wheresoever situated, I give, devise, and bequeath unto my trustees hereinafter named, in trust, to invest and re-invest the same, and to collect and receive the income thereof, and after paying the expenses of the trust including reasonable compensation to the trustees for their services, to pay out of the income thereof the sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) each and every year to each of my children, until they respectively reach the age of thirty (30) years, from which time said annual payments to each of my children shall be increased to the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) per year, until they respectively arrive at the age of thirty-five (35) years, from which time said annual payments to each of my children shall be increased to Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars ($35,000) per year until the expiration of Twenty-five (25) years from and after my death or until the death of the last survivor of my children living at the time of my death, whichever occurs first. If said income, at any time, be insufficient to pay the sums hereinbefore designated, then the principal of my estate may be used to the extent necessary to make up the deficiency. Should any one or more of my children die before the distribution of the entire principal (which is to be made as hereinafter provided), leaving issue surviving him, her, or them, then the income to be paid to such child or children so dying under the provisions of this Section, shall be paid over to their respective children, the issue of each deceased child to take the income which the parent would have taken if living. Should any child, however, die without leaving issue surviving, then the payment of income as to such child shall at once cease, and said undistributed income shall form a part of my estate for distribution as hereinafter directed.

SECTION 2. I direct my trustees to pay to each of my children as they respectively marry, provided such marriage has the approval of my wife if she be living at the time, the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000).

SECTION 3. I further direct my trustees to pay to each of my children, out of the corpus of my residuary estate, as they respectively reach the age of thirty (30) years, if living at that time, the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), which sum shall be in addition to all other sums specified in this Article.

SECTION 4. At the expiration of fifteen (15) years from and after my death, I direct my trustees to pay over and divide to and among my children and the issue of such as may have deceased leaving a child or children surviving, one-fourth of the corpus of my residuary estate which shall then be remaining, the issue of any deceased child to take the share which the deceased parent, my child, would have taken if living. As to the share given to the issue of any deceased child hereunder, I direct my trustees to invest and reinvest the same, and pay over and apply the income annually for the benefit of the child or children of any deceased child of mine, until they respectively reach the age of twenty-one (21) years, at which time the share of the principal to which they may be entitled shall be paid over to them respectively.

SECTION 5. At the expiration of twenty-five (25) years from and after my decease, or upon the death of the last survivor of my children living at the time of my death, whichever occurs first, I direct my trustees, after setting aside and reserving out of the corpus of my residuary estate a sufficient sum to yield an annual income of not less than Ninety Thousand Dollars ($90,000) and as near that sum as may be, to distribute and pay over the balance of such corpus to and among my children then living, if any, and to the issue of such as may have deceased leaving a child or children surviving him, her or them, the child or children of any deceased child of mine to take and receive the share which the deceased parent, my child, would have taken if living. As to the share which the children of any deceased child are entitled to receive hereunder, I direct my trustees to hold the same and invest and reinvest the same, and to pay over the income to and among the issue of any deceased child or children in accordance with the rights of such issue, as herein provided, until they respectively reach the age of twenty-one years, at which time they are to receive their respective shares of the corpus of my residuary estate. From and after the distribution of the corpus directed by this Section, the income of the trust estate so reserved, less the expenses of the trust including reasonable compensation to the trustees for their services, shall be paid in equal shares to my living children and to the issue of any deceased child or children, such issue to take the share of income which the deceased parent, my child, would have taken if living. If no issue survive any deceased child of mine, the undistributed income of such deceased child shall become and form a part of the corpus of the estate until final distribution under this will.

SECTION 6. Upon the death of my last surviving child, I direct the balance of the corpus of my estate and all undistributed income to be divided equally to and among the issue of my deceased children, share and share alike, the issue of any deceased child, together, to take the share which the deceased parent, my child, would have taken if living. No part of the principal, however, shall be paid over to any grandchild himself or herself until such child reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years. Rather shall such payments be made to the guardian, trustee, or parent of the grandchild, as herein provided.

SECTION 7. I do hereby authorize my trustees to invest the several trust funds created by this will,

and to keep the same invested in such securities and investments as permitted by trustees under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania, with power in their discretion, from time to time, to alter and vary all investments, whether original or subsequent, and in their discretion, to sell at public or private sale, as they may deem proper, and convert all or any part of the said trust funds into other investments. I authorize and empower my trustees, in their discretion, to sell and convey any real estate, forming a part of my residuary estate, at such times, and for such prices as they may deem to the advantage of my estate, and without responsibility on the part of the purchasers to look to the application of the purchase money.

SECTION 8. No property held in trust under the provisions of this, the VII Article of my will, nor any income thereof, shall be subject or liable to or for any contracts, debts, engagements, or liabilities of the beneficiary of any such trust, now or hereafter made, contracted, or incurred, but shall be absolutely free from the same, and no beneficiary of any trust by this Article of my will created shall have power to sell, assign, or encumber all or any part of the principal of the trust fund, or his or her interest therein respectively, or the income thereof, or to anticipate such income.

SECTION 9. I direct that the income of all trusts created by this, the VII Article of my will shall be deemed to accrue for the benefit of the beneficiary from the date of my death, and pending the administration of the estate, and until the respective trust funds are established, I direct my executors, from time to time, to pay from my general estate to each beneficiary of said trusts such yearly sums as are directed to be paid by the trustees to such beneficiary by this Article, the same as if the trust estates had been paid and transferred to the trustees and the income had accrued on the estate in their hands.

SECTION 10. If it shall happen that the beneficiary of any trust created by this will, to whom the trustees are directed to pay over the income of the trust fund, shall be a minor, I direct that the trustees of such trust shall, during the minority of such beneficiary, instead of paying over the income to such beneficiary, apply to his or her support, maintenance and education so much of the income of the trust as such trustee shall in its absolute discretion deem proper, accumulating for the benefit of such minor the surplus income not so applied, and paying over to such beneficiary on his or her attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years all such surplus with its accumulations. Any income thus directed to be applied to the support, maintenance, and education of a minor may be either directly so applied by the trustee, or in its discretion may be paid over by it to the guardian, trustee, or parent of such minor, and the receipt of such guardian, trustee, or parent shall be a sufficient voucher and discharge to such trustee for all payments so made by it.

ARTICLE VIII.

Rosenbloom, and the survivors of them, trustees for the purposes of the trusts created under this, my will. My son, Arthur M. Rosenbloom, when he attains the age of twenty-five (25) years, shall become one of such trustees. The said Trust Company shall be the Treasurer of the trustees, and shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all moneys, securities, documents, notes, deeds, or other valuable papers forming a part of or relating to any of the trust funds created by this will.

SECTION 2. I hereby nominate and appoint my wife, Celia Rosenbloom, executrix, and my sons, Charles J. Rosenbloom and Arthur M. Rosenbloom, Sol Buckstein, and William W. Spalding, executors of this, my will.

I direct that no bond or other surety shall be required of any of my executors or of any of my trustees herein named.

SECTION 3. My said executors are authorized, in their discretion, to pay any pecuniary legacy made by this will, whether in trust or otherwise, either in cash or in securities, to be selected by them out of my estate, such securities to be envalued, for purposes of such payment, at their fair market value at the time payment is so made.

SECTION 4. Neither my executors nor my trustees shall be required to convert any investments belonging to my estate at the time of my death, if such conversion would, in the judgment of my executors or my trustees, cause unnecessary sacrifice or where the same may not be necessary for the administration of my estate or the trusts herein created. The limitation upon the authority of my trustees under this will, in relation to investments required to be made, is not intended to impose upon my said trustees any duty of converting any investments or securities which I may own at the time of my death which, in the judgment of my said trustees, should be held and retained by my estate.

SECTION 5. It is my wish that the shares of stock in the Rosenbloom Finance Corporation owned by me at the time of my death shall not be sold by my executors, but rather shall be delivered in kind to the trustees of my residuary estate. It is also my wish that said stock in the Rosenbloom Finance Corporation shall be held by my trustees as a part of my residuary estate until all of such trustees shall consent in writing to the disposition thereof. So long as such stock shall remain a part of my residuary estate, I recommend but do not require that Sol Buckstein shall be an officer of said Rosenbloom Finance Corporation, and that he shall be paid reasonable compensation for his services, by said corporation.

SECTION 6. It is my will and wish that my trustees shall utilize the services of Sol Buckstein for a period of not less than one year after the residuary estate shall be paid to them by the executors. For his services to the trustees, said Buckstein shall be compensated out of my residuary estate at the rate of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) per annum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I Solomon Rosenbloom, testator, have to this, my will, set my hand and seal to this, the last page of my will, and my hand to each of the preceding twenty-five (25) pages, this 28th day of January, 1925.
