IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father

ISRAEL FINKELSTEIN

Who passed away December 12, 1920

Dearly loved and sadly missed by wife, children, grandchildren, brother, relatives and friends.

Eulogy to our Son and Brother

George Shriber

You left us like a passing sound; we live in a daze, not thinking it real.

Mourned by all, none could hold back the tears of your loving memory.

Our staff and support, your memory will remain with us, wherever we are, whatever we do.

You had just come to the threshold of life, when Death knocked at your door and called you to the Great Beyond, but you must have been needed, for God does not take in vain.

Youth wants to live, to go, to see, struggling and fighting each inch of the way, but Death cuts one off, suddenly, regardless of dreams or ambition.

Parents, brothers and sisters—all will carry on for you, endeavoring to realize your ambitions and praying for your contentment in that long eternal rest.

Isaac Seder Memorial Services

Memorial exercises to honor the memory of the late Isaac Seder will be held in the rooms of the Isaac Seder Educational Center of the "Y" on Thursday (Christmas) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Maurice L. Avner, Esq., will deliver the Memorial address. The program will be brief. The friends of Isaac Seder are cordially invited to attend.
