

April 21, 1899.

Judge William H. Moore,

Dear sir:

In pursuance of a conversation had with you to-day by the writer, we make you the following proposition:-

Our Mr. I. W. Frank will use his best efforts, ~~to~~ expert knowledge and personal influence in securing proper options to purchase sheet mill properties, the form of such option to be furnished by you, all expenses connected with securing these options, such as travelling, telephone, telegraph, and any other expenses that may be directly connected with this business are to be borne by you, and a further consideration that should the forming of a sheet mill consolidation be successful, that we are to receive from you seventy five thousand dollars ($75,000) in cash as soon as said consolidation shall have been effective.

Very respectfully,

Frank Kneeland Mackle
Isaac W. Frank
Pres.

accepted
