

SERVICE STRIPES

We are still celebrating although several days have passed since the important event took place. Since two people closely connected with this column were involved, we are turning society reporter for the moment to give you the news that the founder of this column, Pvt. Sammy Schwartz of Ft. Meyer, Va., and this column's faithful secretary, Selma Marcus became Mr. and Mrs. last Saturday evening. Best wishes from all of us . . . After Saturday night we wandered dizzily to another wedding on Sunday afternoon at which time Cpl. Jack Greenberg and Clara Rossen took the vows. Best wishes, again . . . And now we can settle down to peaceful life . . .

And a trip across the waters seems appropriate at this time . . . And our first stop is Ireland where T/5 Abe Ainsman is stationed with a Postal unit . . . From there we move on to merry old England where we meet Cpl. Bernard Elinoff who tells us that he spent a recent furlough in London with T/Sgt. Irwin Rosenberg, Cpl. Jack Plittman and PFC Milton Barbanell . . . T/Sgt. Norman Price lets us know that he has reached England despite a full pack and a long journey by means of an original drawing . . . And we also meet Capt. Leroy Samuels and Cpl. Sylvan Tenenbaum in that area . . . Our next stop is Italy where we receive thanks for the "Y" Honorary Membership from Capt. L. M. "Doc" Arons . . . A little further along the way in the Anzio Beachhead area we find Cpl. Melvin Cohen scanning the Weekly and Pvt. Harry Rosner who remembers that we are interested in Army papers and has a supply for us . . . It's a long trip to our next stop which brings us to the busy theatre in the Central Pacific where we find Pvt. Saul Sigal who is being "groomed as a supply man." He finds life pleasant but misses the feminine element of the home town . . . Our last letter with the censor's mark comes from Pvt. Irwin Epstein who does not disclose his whereabouts . . .

As usual, many changes of addresses have been received. Almost everyone has the request to remember the new address so that the Weekly can be received without delay. We on this end are always looking for such changes and if your Weekly is delayed — remember, we told you time and again to send at least a postcard with the most recent information . . . O/C Robert Metosky is ready to share Miami Beach, Fla., where he is now stationed, with all the local folks. He finds the place "beautiful beyond description" during this season of the year. And we are glad that he can "vacation" there since he has just been released from the hospital after a three month's illness . . . Cpl. Milton Lubin and Pvt. Oscar Grumet have been moved to Camp Blanding, Fla. . . . Lt. Sidney introduced.

All Senior members are invited to participate in all of these activities and Marian Fargotstein will be happy to discuss the total Senior program with any member.

Kweller has moved to Camp Campbell, Ky., while two boys left there; Sgt. Norman Krause going to Savannah, Ga., and Sgt. Adriel Cohen going to Key Field, Miss. . . . New residents of Texas include Cpl. Hyman Kweller at Camp Hulen, Lt. Arnold Schutzman at San Angelo and Cpl. Joe Lubisch at Laredo Army Air Field . . . Sgt. Bernard Levy is now at Columbia Army Air Base, S. C., and Lt. Ted Wertheimer is at Ft. Bragg, N. C. . . . A/S Max Klein is writing from Kirtland Field, N. M. . . . Maurice Levite, EM 3/c is way out west at Tiburon, Calif. . . . And PFC Nat Kweller is at Tucson, Ariz. . . . Robert Colton has changed his Pearl Harbor address for Washington, D. C. . . . Pvt. Max Applebaum has left the warm clime of Miami Beach for Chanute Field, Ill. . . . PFC George Weiser has completed his desert maneuvers and is now at Ft. Dix, N. J. . . . Others in that State are Bernard Silverman, A. S. at Asbury Park and Cpl. S. B. Sunstein at Camp Kilmer . . . Lt. James Sunstein is at the Spokane Army Air Base, Wash. . . . Sgt. Saul Kaufman has been assigned to the Bakers and Cooks School at Ft. Meade, Md. . . . And Morris Robin, S 2/c, has left N. Y. for the US Naval Training Station at Bainbridge, Md. . . . Pvt. Nathan Tabachnick is now stationed closer to home at Indiantown Gap, Pa. . . . Pvt. Milton Goodman is now receiving mail c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif. . . . And Capt. Paul Caplan and T/Sgt. Israel Abramovitz are getting their mail c/o PM, New York.

It was nice seeing the boys home for visits within the last few days . . . S/Sgt. Sherman Schwartz was in from Ft. Bragg, N. C., for a few days . . . Leonard Edelson, S 2/c, was in from Great Lakes, Ill., and PFC Albert Marcovsky came in from Scott Field, Ill. . . . Pvt. Irving Sanshuck has returned to his station at Madison, Wis. . . . It looks like our Camp Newspaper Collection is in for a big let down, since so few papers have been received. Come on, boys — we are waiting for more. The papers are the best medicine for our insomnia after we pound this column out on Monday nights. The most recent additions to our collection are: "The Stars and Stripes — Mediterranean edition" from Pvt. Herbert Smith, c/o PM, N. Y.; "The Sub-Base Gazette" from Joe Lebeau, F 1/c, at New London, Conn.; "Rainbow Reveille" from PFC Gorman at Camp Gruber, Okla., and the "CBI Roundup" from Sgt. M. Levy at a Delhi Base . . .

Last, but not least are the others heard from this week: Pvt. Lee Katz, Camp Van Dorn, Miss.; Sgt. Al Mintz, Wendover Field, Utah; PFC Henry Loewenstein, Camp Breckenridge, Ky., and Pvt. Martin Rubinstein, Lehigh U, Pa. . . . That's all there is . . . Until the next time, regards from the girls . . .
