

Rodef Shalom Alumni ActivitiesSeventh Annual Informal Dance

Everything is in readiness for the Temple Alumni's seventh annual informal dance at the Hotel Schenley on December 20. The untiring efforts of the committee and its associates assure a huge success. The dance will be held in the main dining room (home of the Schenley Supper Club), where the evening's entertainment will be furnished by a local favorite, Burt Wydenor and his Sylvanians, an orchestra noted for its unique arrangements and novelties. Miss Freda Lazier, popular radio songstress, will render a variety of specialty selections. Many worthwhile prizes will be given for novelty dances.

Miss Freda Lazier

The committee announces the following as patrons and patronesses of the dance: Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Golden-son, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Aaron, Mrs. L. Affelder, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bandman, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hammer-schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lambie, Mrs. S. Lavine, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Rauh, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Rosenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. S. Leo Ruslander, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice W. Spear, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd. T. Weil, Mr. and Mrs. A. Leo Weil.

Subscribing members are permitted to bring a partner without charge. Non-subscribing members will be taxed $2.00 per couple. For information regarding the dance call Miss Florence Fineberg at Everglade 8040.

McNair Address Attracts Record-Breaking Attendance

On Sunday last Mayor-elect Wm. N. McNair addressed the Alumni Association, the mayor-elect's interesting address being heard by more than three hundred members and friends. The customary Temple Alumni Hall was unable to hold the large gathering, therefore the meeting was held in the assembly room of the main building.

Fireside Group

"Hear, Ye Sons" by Irving Fineman will be reviewed by Attorney Leon Tolochko, on Wednesday evening, December 20, at the home of Miss Elizabeth Cramer, 5817 Douglass Avenue.

This novel covers a great panorama of the life of a Jewish family who migrated to America from Russia and succeeded in this country both materially and socially. Joseph, the main character, loses the tradition of his forefathers in his new environment, but finally awakens spiritually. The book is a picture of the Jews, their tragedy, their desire for peace denied them through ignorance and superstition.

Tea will be served following the meeting by Miss Ada Alpert, Miss Anne Brown, Miss Lena Ripp, and Miss Esther Zeidenschneider, hostess.

Cultural Study Group

At the meeting of the Cultural Study Group, to be held on Wednesday evening, December 27, at the home of Miss Esther Rogow, 5549 Jackson Street, Miss Ida Grossman will present a paper on the life of Supreme Court Justice Benjamin Cardozo.

B'nai Israel Congregation Celebrates Chanukah

A capacity crowd filled the B'nai Israel Social Hall on Tuesday evening to usher in the happy festival of Chanukah. A musical comedy entitled "The Rehearsal" staged and directed by Mr. Louis Robins, was presented by the following cast: Rev. Julius Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norman Klamman, Mr. Joseph Gerson, Miss Bess Seepin, Mr. Morton Robins, Miss Ethel Bart, Mrs. George Schugar, Miss Bertha Gerson, Mr. Jerome Tagress. A play entitled "Hitlerites and Chanukah Lights," coached by Mrs. I. J. Morgan was presented by the children of the Sunday religious school.

Rev. Julius Bloom chanted the blessing as he lit the first Chanukah light, and sang the "The Lichtelech" and "Chanukah."

Refreshments were served by the Sisterhood.

sciousness. It renders human service to people of all races, creeds and colors on a basis of their need. In keeping with its aims it maintains the Blood-Transfusion Donor's Fund at the Montefiore Hospital for which this benefit card party is being given. Tickets are fifty cents and reservations may be made by calling any committee member.

Mrs. Ben Amdur, Hazel 6046, is general chairman and Miss Elizabeth

Seegman, Hazel 0800, is co-chairman; Miss Anna Gordon, Montrose 9729, is ticket chairman and assisting her are Miss Ruth Perlman, Montrose 7255, and Miss Ida Friedman, Montrose 6250. Miss Ida Levine and Miss Anna Seegman are in charge of prizes and refreshments, Miss Marion Davis and Mrs. Emily Mazer taking care of cards. Miss Anne Kulick, Mayflower 3400 or Hazel 5850-R, is telephone chairman, and the publicity committee includes Miss Ina Saff, Miss Sara Goldstein, Miss Ruth Kalson, Miss Fannie Glazer and Miss Sylvia Lewis.

Each member of Montefiore Aid Society is urged to pledge herself responsible for one table.

Individual Card Party

Members and friends of Montefiore Aid Society are urged not to forget that on Sunday, December 17, at 2 p. m. at the Ritz Apartment Hotel, Miss Ida Friedman and Miss Ruth Perlman will be joint hostesses at an individual card party.

Admission is 35 cents and reservations may be made by calling either Miss Friedman, Montrose 6250, or Miss Perlman, Montrose 7255. Guests not having reservations, wishing to attend may come directly to the Ritz Apartment Hotel at South Beatty Street, opposite Motor Square Garden.

Mothers' Club of McKees Rocks Sponsors Sunday School Program

The McKees Rocks religious school, under the auspices of McKees Rocks Mothers' Club, gave a very interesting program on Sunday afternoon at the Synagogue. The program was directed by the teachers and delightfully presented by the children of the various classes.

Miss Leona Orringer rendered several piano selections, Mr. Martin Silverman, Pittsburgh attorney, gave a very inspiring talk, and Mr. Jacques Levine, superintendent of the school, spoke on cooperation of the parents with the religious school. At the conclusion of the program gifts of candy were presented the children, teachers and superintendent.
