

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C.

March 10
1926.

My dear Sir:-

The pressure of duties
and the number of letters that I have received make it impossible for me to do more than to send you my heartfelt thanks for your kind words, which give me
much pleasure.

Very sincerely yours,

Oliver Holmes

David Flick, Esq.
Park Building,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

I much regret being unable to send as large a sum as is charming.
