

Dearest Wife

Yesterday I went to the synagogue where we were married to attend Rosh Hashonah Services. The place overflowed with G.I.'s. Mr Kay (the man who tied us together) conducted the services. He is a very good Rabbi & a mucom. After the services Mr Scharfman drove us to his home for dinner. Mrs. Scharfman's Mother & Father came in for the Holiday. They are grand people, dear, and remind me so much of the old folks. Mrs. Scharfman's was born in Kovno, the same place Littel comes.

We sat down to the most glorious feast I have had since I have been in Mucom. There were bottles of wine and whiskey all over the table and I drank freely. The gefilte fish was extra delicious. The chicken soup was so vigorous that it seemed the chicken just flatted itself therein to to. Then there was the roast chicken which was so tender that the meat came all off at a touch of the bone.

Late for two solid hours and was bloated. Everybody ate to their total capacity. Al Korn & Co. were there Phil & Boris, Jonas & Eleanor and a 2nd H. took care of Mrs Scharfman's young sister. After the meal, Scharfman passed around the cigars. We drank to everyone & everything and also a special toast for you. Mr. Scharfman is a wonderful host and Mrs Scharfman is such a gracious and fine person. Everyone asked about you. You were sorely needed by my side of the table. I went to the ball about 10.45 and slept like a log.

I have been transferred back to the 46th. The new job is tough. It's like operating a big corporation. The captain is a swell guy and has a smart head on him. He is ruthlessly efficient. He will not stand for anything but perfection. He wants clean copies of everything. He erases. For two days I have been setting up the stock records which is an intricate detail job. I have no help. The lady who works in the office is inefficient. Today we hired a typist. I hope to break her in on the detail job. There are so many reports to be completed and so much detail. I confess I am swimming now but I will see myself clear within the next two weeks. I expect a furbergh in November provided things are running smoothly. I am getting $39.00 extra compensation monthly. If I install the system and it functions smoothly I am asking for two more stripes. If I don't get it I intend to give it up. I would rather work in the kitchen than give them this system of accountancy that is if they don't take care of me - for I am really knocking myself out. It seems so difficult at the outset.

Dear Wife, how I missed you yesterday. How I longed for the sound of your voice, or the kiss of your lips. I was a lonesome guy and I am afraid that I could not conceal it even though I tried to act gay and be merry.

Love to you my dear sweetheart. A happy new year to you. I hope that next year in christmese we will be either in Pgh or New Brighton. Love you, Oh yes I do, you know I do, I always did, I always will & help me,

Love
Harry
