

Chicago and Pittsburgh

(Tune: Comin' through the Rye.)

Chicago is a great big place
With lots of work to do.
It's good there is a Goldie here
To see the work put through.

Chorus:- Since Chicago has it's Goldie
We can all rejoice
And proclaim her many merits
With a clarion voice.

Pittsburg needs a young reformer
To steer it off the rock.
Morris saw in Goldie's daughter
A chip off the old block.

Chorus:- So to Pittsburg he will take her,
We regret to say.
But we know they need her badly;
There is no other way.

When youth and beauty meet together
The same old course is run:
He woos boldly, she smiles coyly,
And finally is won.

Chorus:- If a Morris loves a Bobby,
Can one wonder why?
When a Morris weds a Bobby,
"God bless them both", say I.

A. G. B.

In Honor of
Beatrice and Morris
November 27, 1919

A Song by Morris

(Tune:- Chocolate Soldier.)

"Come! Come! "Morris is singing," my heart is true
Come! Come! I love you only, I long for you.
Come! Come! Let me embrace you,
In my life none can efface you,
You are divine!
Come! Come! I love you only,
Come, Bobby mine.

A Song by Beatrice

(Tune:- Dixie.)

I'm going down to Spittsburg, Hooray, Hooray,
In Spittsburg Land I'll show them how
We do things in Chicago.
Hooray, Hooray, when Bobby gets to Spittsburg:
Hooray, Hooray, when Bobby gets to Spittsburg.
Adele Goldsmith Block.