In order to concretely voice the appreciation of the guests who were invited to come over to Paris, France, to join Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. May in the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on April 27th, sufficient money has been donated by these guests to the Montefiore Hospital Association to endow a bed in honor of Mr. and Mrs. May. As a further mark of their appreciation, a unique testimonial in the form of a specially-designed book, hand-tooled for the occasion, was presented to Mr. and Mrs. May by their guests. The motif for the cover was the May book plate, and the entire design was treated after Fourteenth Century Gothic. In the corners, hammered brass squares of similar Gothic design were inserted, each one having set in it a piece of Chrysophase. A felicitation address, signed by all the guests, was placed inside the cover, on vellum. This was executed in hand-illuminated lettering and is a replica of a famous fourteenth century manuscript. The book was planned by a special committee of which Dr. Edward E. Mayer was chairman.
