

"TEMPLE ISRAEL OF NEW CASTLE, PA."

Founded in Memory
of
RABBI JOSEPH LEONARD LEVY
and
Dedicated to GOD

Reform Jewry of the City of New Castle, Pennsylvania, have, for a long time past, felt the need of a Jewish House of Worship. Their desire for a reform or liberal manner of worship has united them for the purpose of erecting a House of Worship founded in memory of Rabbi Joseph Leonard Levy, who has been an everlasting inspiration to the Jews of the City of New Castle.

We have a sufficient amount pledged for annual maintenance, but find ourselves not financially strong enough to erect such a fitting and appropriate edifice as is necessary, and therefore, we make this appeal to you for assistance.

We have pledged very liberal amounts for this edifice, and in consideration of these pledges we ask you, in the name of Judaism, to set opposite your names the amount of your subscription to said building fund.
