Grace After Meals

Together:

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our G-d, Ruler of the universe, who sustaineth the whole world with thy goodness, with lovingkindness, and with tender mercy. Thou givest food to all creatures, for thy lovingkindness endureth forever. Thine abundant goodness hath never yet failed us. May we never be in want of sustenance for thy great name's sake; for Thou providest nourishing food and sustenance for all Thy creatures which Thou has created. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, who dost sustain all.

Responsively:

Let us bless Him of whose bounty we have partaken and through whose goodness we live.

Thou openest thy hand and satisfiest the needs of every living being. As Thou hast provided for us here, so mayest Thou sustain us throughout our lives.

While we enjoy Thy gifts, may we never forget the needy, nor allow those who want, to be forsaken.

For everything, Lord our G-d, we thank Thee and bless Thee; be Thy name forever blessed by all.

As it is written: "When you have eaten and are satisfied, you shall bless the Lord your G-d for the good land he has given you."

Make us not dependant upon the gifts or loans of man,

But rather on Thy full, open and gracious hand, that we may never be put to shame or disgrace.

May the merciful One send abundant blessings into this house and upon this table at which we have eaten.

May He bless us and all that is ours with a perfect blessing, even as our forefathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were blessed in every way.

May the Lord give strength unto his people; and bless his people everywhere with peace.

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,

Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.
