

SHENANGO VALLEY JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB
MERCER COUNTY
SHARON, PENNSYLVANIA

June 12, 1950.

Dr. David Ekker,
209 Case Avenue,
Sharon, Pennsylvania.

Dear Dr. Ekker:

The Shenango Valley Junior Woman's Club would appreciate it if you would let us know if the Synagogue, corner of Euclid Avenue and Highland Road, would be available for us to hold our meetings there this Club year.

Our meetings are held at eight o'clock the third Thursday of each month from September, 1950 to May, 1951 inclusive.

Please let us hear from you as soon as possible in regard to this matter. If it meets with the approval of your Board, please advise us as to rental charge, hour of closing the building, and other pertinent facts.

Very truly yours,

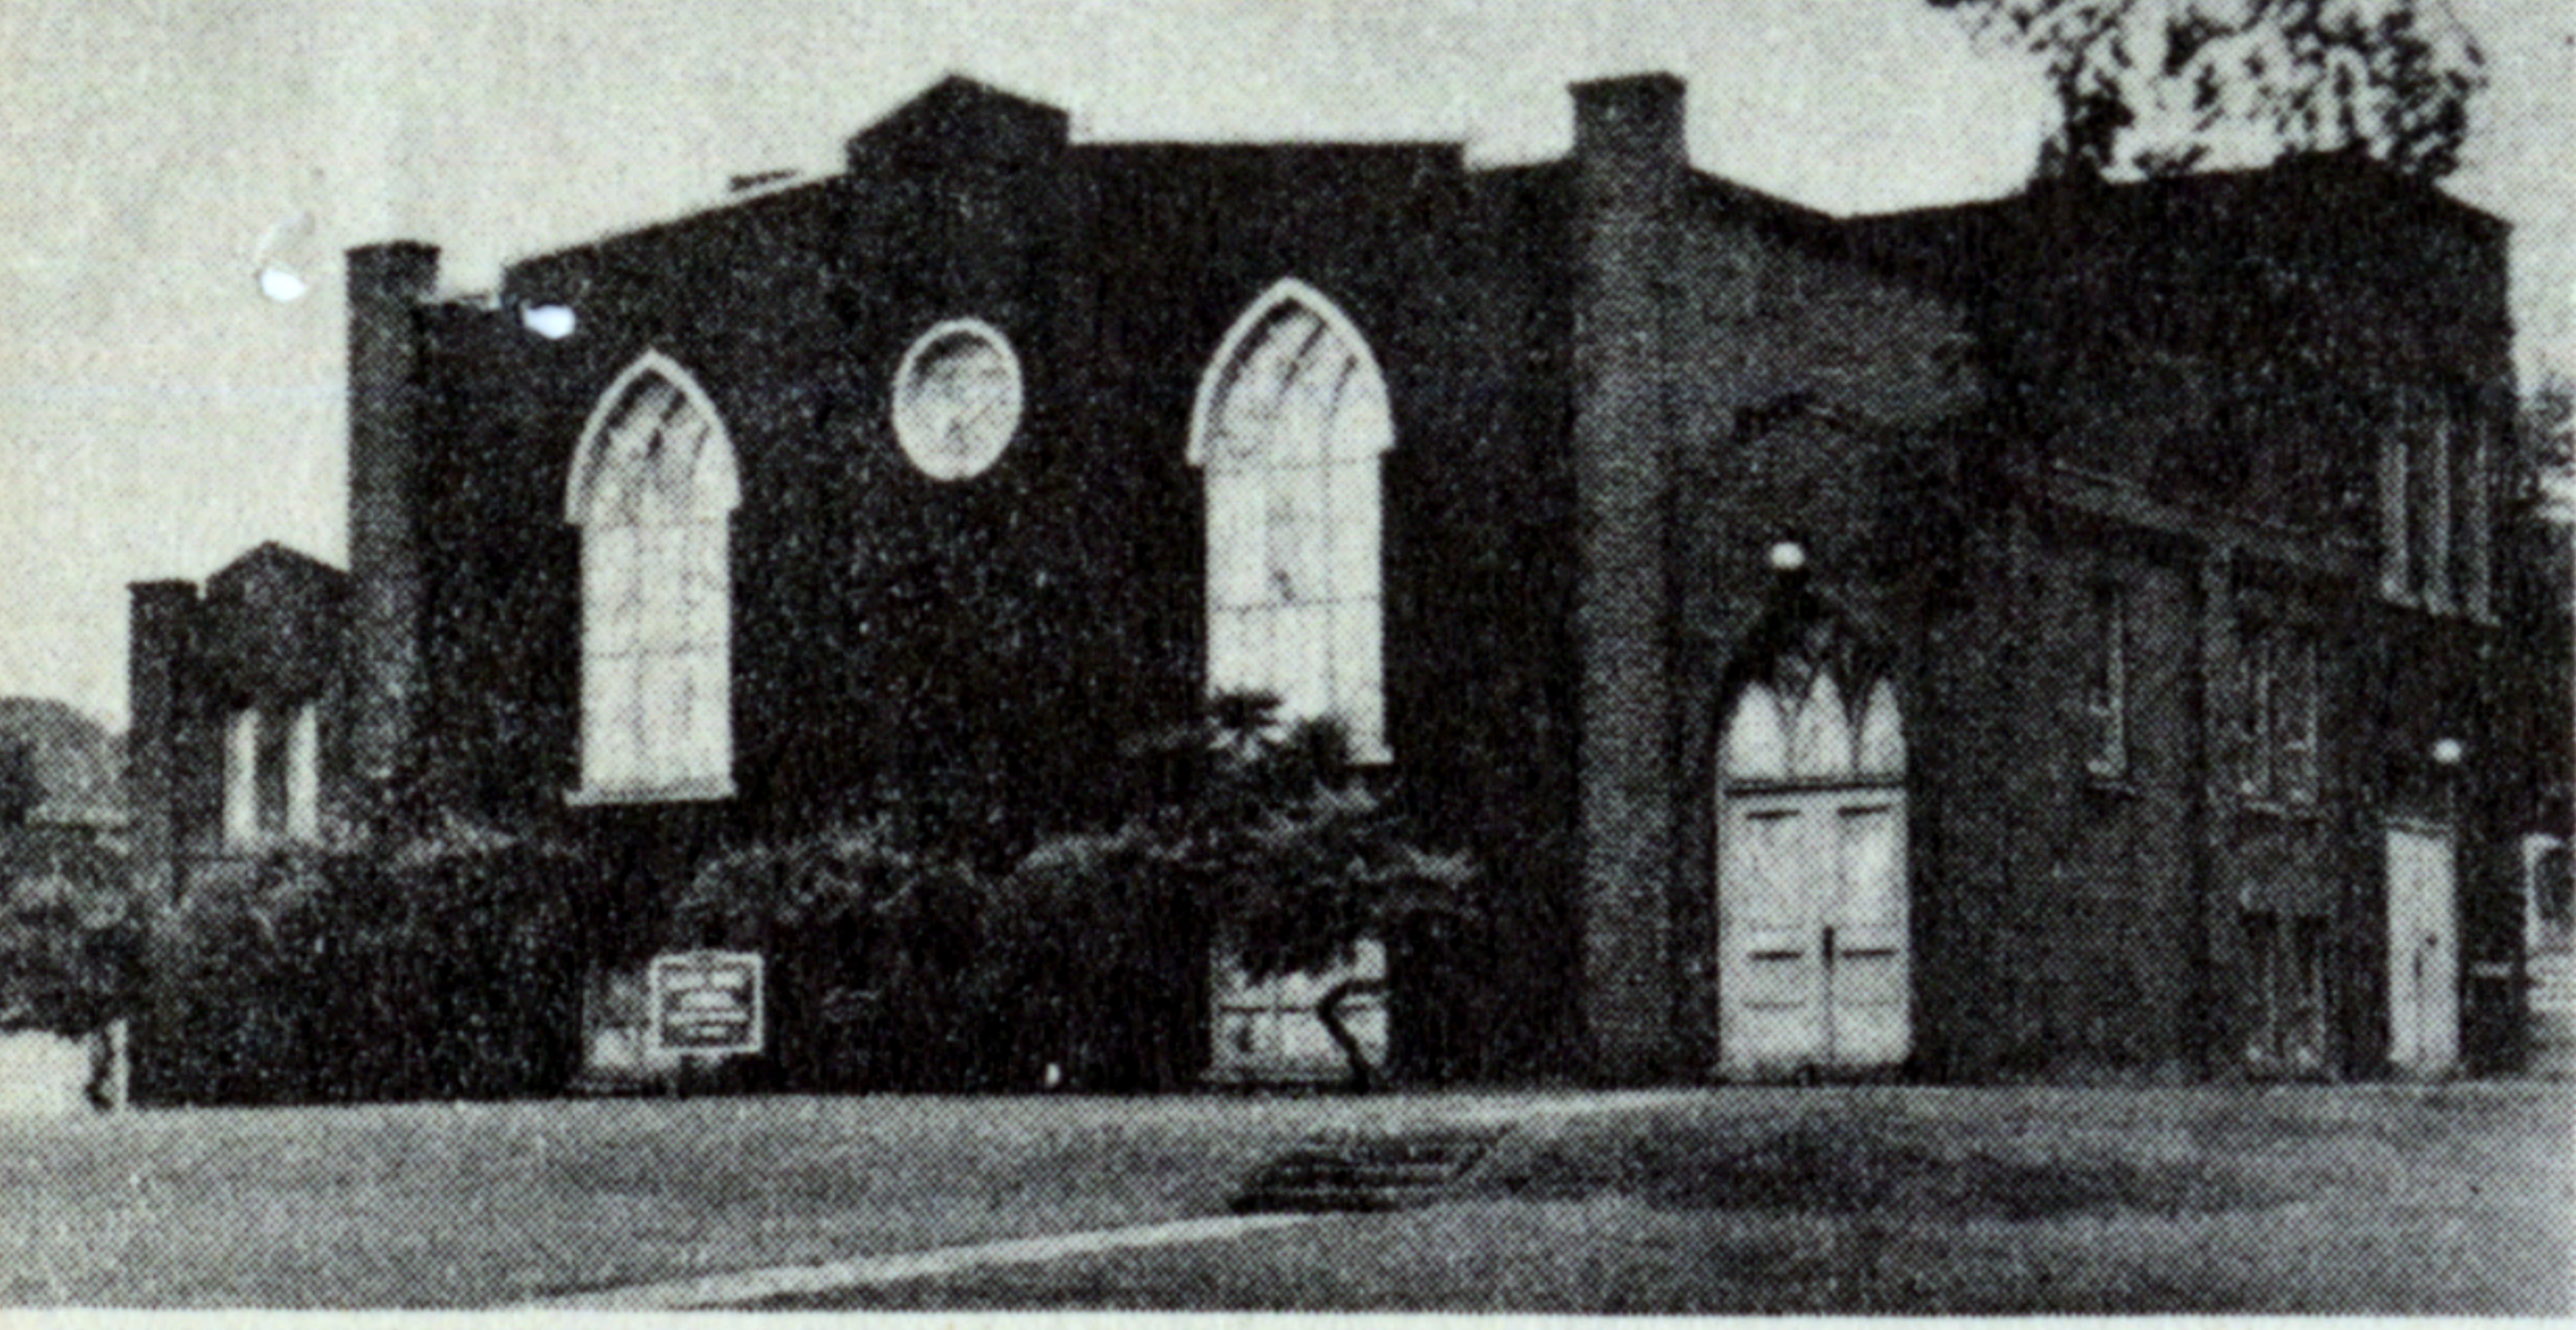

SHENANGO VALLEY JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Kathleen Mc Knight
Secretary.

Please address reply to:

Mrs. William Goodrick,
386 A Street,
Sharon, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Ekker,

Here is the information you needed:

1. Shenango Valley Junior Woman's Club made up of 225 members.
2. Meeting night is the THIRD Thursday of each month. We would be willing to postpone our meeting if it fell on one of your high holy days. You could count on us to be very co-operative in ANY situation!
3. Last year we paid the American Legion Home fifteen dollars for each meeting night. We would make proper financial arrangements with the Temple, too.
4. There will be a total of 8 meetings. (Our May meeting is a Banquet at the Hotel.)
5. We would need very little use of the kitchen. Our refreshments are usually tea, coffee, and cookies.

Rev. Rowand and I both feel that bringing these women, (the majority of them outstanding leaders in the Valley), into the Temple month after month will greatly strengthen the bonds of understanding between Christian and Jew.

Most sincerely,

Mrs. E. C. Rowand, Jr.
