If a committee member is unable to attend there will be no substitute.

☆ A quorum of 4 out of the 6 members is necessary to do business or make decision.

Sandy Roth moved and Dave Goodman seconded that no child be accepted as

* A student in the Sunday School unless the parents are members in good standing of either congregation. The motion was passed unanimously.

Shirley Komons will write a letter to Guy Abels, president of the Center, formally requesting space for the Sunday School.

Harold Komons suggested there be a meeting of parents prior to the Sunday School opening to discuss curriculum, philosophy, requirements, dress code etc., attendance etc.

A Sunday School schedule was tentatively set. Classes will begin Sunday Oct. and end with a picnic on Sunday June 3. Total number of sessions will be 30. No Sunday School Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years, Passover.

A letter will be sent to the Jewish Community explaining the merger and asking anyone who is interested in full or part time teaching to contact the committee. Selection of teachers and ^{setting} salaries ~~etc~~ will be discussed at a future meeting.

The Sunday School will be consist of students from 1st thru 10th grades in public school.
Class determinations, groupings tabled to a future meeting.

Students absent because of B. B. Y. O., Puffy or other reasons will be required to make up their Sunday School work in a manner determined by the teacher, superintendent, or Rabbi.
Students should be urged to treat S.S. attendance in the same responsible manner they do public school.

Confirmation class duties will be divided by the Rabbi. If possible Confirmation Class should be held the same time as the other S.S. classes. Hebrew school requirements for Confirmation should be an individual congregational requirement.

Discussed briefly but tabled for a future meeting were such specifics as religious assemblies, library usage, report card grades, Friday night service requirements.

The next meeting was scheduled for Tues. June 20 at the Center so that we may inspect the facilities.

It was agreed that we invite Tutzie Cohen to the next meeting during which we would discuss in greater detail the curriculum for the first year.

The meeting adjourned about 11:30 p.m.
