

March 1977.

Since moving into its location at 31 Morgantown St. , Opall's Furniture has each year undertaken an extensive remodeling project. This year's was the biggest of them all. The entire downstairs bedroom department has been rebuilt, rewired, newly carpeted, painted, lighted and accessorized to show off 27 bedrooms in their best possible fashion. It's truly a showcase and has been receiving much favorable reaction from visitors and customers.

"We don't like to stand still. We're constantly trying to improve. This latest investment indicates our faith in the future of downtown Uniontown.", commented Morton L. Opall, president of the firm.

Opall's Furniture has been in business in Uniontown for 38 years. Founded in 1939 by the late Louis Opall and his wife Mary who is now retired, it began with a wallpaper and paint department in the back of the old Keystone Supermarket at 10 Main St. The business moved from there to the old Thompson-Ruby Building at 49 W. Main St. in 1940. In 1943 they moved to 66W. Main St., the location they occupied until the move to their present location in 1972. Prior to 1967 when the present corporation was formed, the business was operated under the name Keystone Wallpaper, Paint & Furniture.

Morton Opall joined the firm in 1959 after serving in the U.S. Marine Corps. His wife Rosalie has been active in the firm since 1971. Opall's employs fourteen people full-time and three persons part-time.

The store is a bright modern 40,000 square foot building with three floors and a balcony. Its show windows front on a busy downtown thoroughfare. There is a large city parking lot at its rear doors. Opall's specializes in quality furniture from reputable manufacturers in the moderate price range. The firm offers its customers free delivery, free lay-a-way, free validated parking and convenient credit arrangements.

Opall's Furniture, Inc. has been in business in Uniontown for 35 years. The firm is located at 31 Morgantown St. in a bright, modern 40,000 square foot building with three floors and a balcony.

Its show windows front on a busy downtown thoroughfare, and there is a huge city parking lot at its rear doors. Opall's offers its customers free validated parking and draws its trade from the tri-state area. Fourteen people are employed full-time.

Opall's specializes in quality brand furniture at moderate prices. On display and in stock at all times are large selections of home furnishings from the top manufacturers in the nation. They offer free delivery, free lay-a-way, and convenient credit terms.

As a full-service furniture store, they can provide one-stop shopping for everything for the home - furniture, appliances, bedding, carpeting, and accessories.

"We feel our store is the most modern one in Fayette County," said Morton Opall, president of the firm. "We have had steady growth since our founding, and we have definite faith in the future of downtown Uniontown."

Opall's was founded here in 1939 by the late Louis Opall and his wife Mary. It began with a wallpaper and paint department in the back of the old Keystone Supermarket at 10 Main St.

The business was moved from there to the old Thompson Ruby Building at 49 W. Main St. in 1940. In 1943 they moved to 66 W. Main St., the location they occupied until the move to their present location in 1972. Prior to 1967 when they formed the present corporation, the business was operated under the name "Keystone, Wallpaper, Paint, and Furniture."

Morton Opall joined the firm in 1959 after serving in the U.S. Marine Corps. He graduated from Uniontown High School in 1955 and attended Penn State University.