SETTLEMENT WILL CELEBRATE "UNCLE HENRY KAUFMANN" DAY

The entire Hill District Community is expected to join the Irene Kaufmann Settlement Staff and members in celebrating the birthday, Saturday, July 12, of "Uncle" Henry Kaufmann, founder of the Settlement.

The celebration will begin at one o'clock in the afternoon, and will continue until 10 o'clock in the evening. The "Milk Well" will serve milk and crackers free. One of the outstanding features will be a children's program, entitled "The Doll Shop," which will be presented in the Theresa L. Kaufmann Auditorium at 2:30 o'clock.

The Settlement will be open during the entire day to members, their friends and their parents.

MOONLIGHT DANCE SERIES STARTED

A note of glamor has been added to the summer social activities at the Settlement, with the inauguration of a series of Moonlight Dances. These dances, which are held on the Irene Kaufmann Settlement Outdoor Playground every Tuesday night, are open to Intermediate, Senior and Adult members. Refreshments are served. Come and frolic in the cool atmosphere of the spacious, enclosed playground. Non-members may be admitted with guest cards, which can be bought in the offices of either the Boys' or Girls' Departments.

In addition to the regular Tuesday evening dances, the older members and their friends may attend swimming parties every Saturday night in the Irene Kaufmann Settlement Turquoise Pool.

PARENT-CHILD SWIM PARTIES SCHEDULED FOR JULY 13

Special Father and Son and Mother and Daughter swimming parties will be held in the beautiful Turquoise Pool, Sunday afternoon, July 13. On that day, children who are members may bring a parent free of charge. The women's hour will be from 2 to 3 o'clock, while the men and boys will swim from 3 to 4 o'clock. Members coming with a parent will be given preference for admittance.

SUMMER PLAY SCHOOL OPENS

With an initial registration of about 125 boys and girls, the Irene Kaufmann Settlement Summer Play School opened Monday, June 30. The Play School carries out a varied program each day, so that every child attending may take part in as many activities as possible.

Surprises are offered the youngsters each day in the form of an Assembly, at which a new program is featured daily. Monday is devoted to group singing, each week bringing a new song for the children to learn. Tuesday is Stunt Day, at which members are given the opportunity to express their talents by means of playlets, recitations and other entertainment. Wednesday, Health Day, will offer programs which feature health plays, health movies and special speakers, so that the youngsters may be impressed in entertaining fashion with the value of good food, and proper living. Thursdays are given over to safety programs and topics which will encourage civic pride. Among the speakers who have been secured for the safety program are J. P. Leonard, of the Western Pennsylvania Safety Council; Mrs. Charles I. Renz, of the Duquesne Light Company; Mr. Link, Representative of the Pennsylvania Railroad Safety Division, and Julian Harvey, of the National Safety Council. Several movies of educational value produced by the Bell Telephone Company, will be shown at the assemblies. Friday, Story-Telling Day, a librarian from Carnegie Library will take charge of story-telling and story-dramatization.

Besides these seemingly full programs, extra treats, in the form of weekly excursions to places of interest, are also planned. Among the places to be visited on these excursions are Carnegie Museum, the Heinz factories and Rieck-McJunkin Dairy plant. Through the generosity of Mr. Anderson, President of the Willows Beach Corporation, the youngsters will be given an outing at the Willows Pool. Mr. Harry Hendel, of the Roosevelt Theatre, Center Avenue, has invited the entire Play School to a free movie in the Roosevelt, while arrangements have been made whereby the youngsters will see a Pirate ball game later in the summer.

CLUBS HOLD SUMMER SOCIALS

Picnics and parties go on merrily this summer for the entertainment of Irene Kaufmann Settlement Club members.

Among the organizations who recently held picnics are the Cosy Club, the Merry-makers and the Martha Washington Club. The boys seem even more socially minded than the girls this summer. The T. H. Young Judea Club held a banquet last Wednesday evening, while the Nautilus Club is planning a similar event for the near future. The Keystone Club, Boys Scout Troop 125 and the Beacon Club have also held house parties. Settlement club activities seem to go on at a merry pace in spite of the warm weather.
