Happy New Year

President's Message

We are on the threshold of another religious year. With prayer — and confidence — and hope — do we enter into it. But, that is not quite enough. With our prayers for God's help and guidance, we must resolve to work to that end; so as to justify the goodness that is asked of Him.

But to work, however hard, for our daily living, is yet not enough. We must do it with honor to Him and His teachings; with honor to His Temple and our people, and to bring honor to our parents.

And that work with honor is still not quite enough. We must, in addition, work for our Temple — not pass along the work to others who recognize their obligations to Temple. When ALL these things are done, then with a free heart, can we in our prayers approach God and ask for his blessings on our families, ourselves, and our endeavors.

We welcome the New Year with a new spiritual leader, Rabbi Theodore Falcon, and look forward to a happy religious year with him.

My best wishes to you all.

LEONARD CAHEN
PRESIDENT
