Farmer's North Side Market Reorganized

The Allegheny County Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Assn. has reorganized its market, located on W. General Robinson and Dasher Sts., and W. Lacock and Burdock Way, North Side.

The change was made for the convenience of the consumer, who for the past several years have fought traffic congestion and contended with an unlighted parking lot, thereby creating a hardship. In conjunction with Henry Eby, County Agent, and Robert Donaldson, Marketing Specialist of Penn State College, a plan was worked out to alleviate the congestion and a well lighted parking lot provided a short distance from the farmer one intends to patronize. A new lighting system over the stands has also been provided to enable Mrs. Housewife to see what she is buying and encourage the members to pack quality produce.

The market will be open as usual, from 7 to 12 p.m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. Now is the peak of the fruit and vegetable season and several growers even produce beautiful cut flowers throughout the season.

Eighth "Words We Live By" Show to Be Heard Sunday

"Words We Live By," The Eternal Light radio program's summer series, will present the eighth in a series of ten radio dialogues between two of America's outstanding men of letters, Maurice Samuel, well-known author and Mark Van Doren, Professor of English at Columbia university on Sunday, August 23, from 12:30 to 1 p.m., on KDKA.

Sunday's discussion, entitled "Joseph's Life in the Land of Egypt" is based on Thomas Mann's classic, Joseph and His Brothers, and is intended, along with the other dialogues in this series, to present a modern interpretation of the familiar Joseph story in the Bible.

Adenauer Condemns Re-Appearance of Ex-Nazi Leaders

MUNICH, (JTA) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, addressing an election meeting in Regensburg, Bavaria, condemned the re-appearance of former Nazi leaders in German political life.

In a reference to the candidacy of Dr. Werner Naumann, former righthand man to Joseph Goebbels in the Nazi Propaganda Ministry, Dr Adenauer said: "If I had been Goebbels' Secretary of State I would have been ashamed of myself because of all the suffering that National Socialism brought on the world." He told his audience that no one need fear a repetition of Hitler's 1933 rise to power because "the entire German people will prevent the restoration of Nazism or any similar political direction."

Meanwhile, in Lower Saxony in the British zone where he is running for Parliament, Dr. Naumann is aping the Nazi program and methods in his bid for election. Using the greetings of the Nazi movement at public rallies and concentrating on the idea that Europe would have gone Communist without the rise of the Hitler regime, the ex-Nazi leader also attacks the British High Commissioner, who had him arrested for heading a plot to return the Nazis to power.

When he was recently barred from making public appearances in Hanover and Dortmund, by the municipal authorities, Dr. Naumann and his followers retired to beer halls and continued their meeting. This is an exact imitation of the beer hall tactics of the Nazis before they came to power.
