

(The Confirmants say in unison:)

"In this solemn hour I hallow my life, in the name of the Eternal God, to the Religion of Israel. Whatever be my lot and wherever I may be, I promise to support the truths revealed by Judaism: Now, as ever, it shall be my aim 'to do justice, to love mercy, and to walk humbly before God,' and thus to harmonize my life with Israel's proclamation, 'Hear, O Israel, the Eternal is God, the Eternal is One.'"

To the Voters of the First Legislative District:

As it is impossible to see all gentlemen who so kindly supported me in my campaign for the Legislature, I take this means of expressing my sincere gratitude and appreciation. It was indeed most gratifying to see all my friends stand by me loyally in the face of liberal offers to desert. Very few of my workers would even accept pay, which makes me think that a new era is dawning in politics.

In return, I promise the voters of the District absolute obedience to their wishes, and assure them that no person who cast his vote for me will ever have occasion to regret his action.

Respectfully submitted,

A. C. Stein
