

sued to the members and invitations for their friends.

Mr. Dillinger Livingston, president of the Laorah Society, will be General Chairman of the Dance; Mr. Elmer Applestein, Chairman of Printing; Mrs. S. H. Reichman and Mr. M. D. Bachrach, Publicity. All members are urged to attend this meeting as the success of this dance depends upon each individual member.

There will be a social given by the Ladies' Auxiliary on Wednesday, June Seventh, to which the Laorah Society is invited. Miss Harriett Silverman, fiancée of Rabbi Hailperin, will be the honor guest. A delightful program has been arranged, and dancing and refreshments are included.

Remember the dates—June Fifth, meeting and June Seventh, social.

Ladies' Auxiliary, Tree of Life:—On Wednesday night, June Seventh, an informal social will be held to which the members of the congregation and the Laorah Society are invited. The Ladies' Auxiliary is holding this event in honor of Miss Harriet Silverman, fiancée of Rabbi Herman Hailperin, who will be in Pittsburgh the week of June Seventh. A very enjoyable program has been planned. Miss Grossman will give a few selections, and Mr. Kwaliwasser, who is director of the orchestra of the Religious school and one of Pittsburgh's best musicians, will play. There will also be a reading.

Rabbi Hailperin will have taken up his duties as Rabbi of the congregation and will be prepared to greet his many friends.

The Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday, June Sixth. This will be the last meeting until the school picnic in July. All details must be taken care of at this meeting. Your presence is urgently requested. Please attend.

American Ladies' Foreign Aid Society:—Officers of the society take this means of thanking the many patrons and patronesses who participated in the bazaar, entertainment and dance last Sunday in the Zionist Institute for the benefit of foreign orphans and other helpless Jews in the devastated regions of Eastern Europe. A large sum was realized. Mrs. Ida Rabinovitz, general chairman, was assisted by the following: Mrs. S. Romick, Mrs. A. Federman, Mrs. Medoff, Mrs. Seltzer, Mrs. Rhein, Mrs. Cohen, Mrs. Pauline Lebowitz, Mrs. Lebowitz, Mr. and Mrs. Bolner, Mrs. B. Horvitz, Mrs. Haddler, Mrs. Diamond, Mr. and Mrs. L. Handel, Mrs. Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Steinfield, Mrs. Schnoger and Mrs. Breskin, and the Canter Jacobowitz, of the Roumanian Congregation, who sang.

Jewish Home for Babies:—On Wednesday, June Twenty-eighth, the annual Tag Day of the Home will be held. Mrs. Mark Nolan, of Negley Avenue, is general chairman for the day. Will volunteers for tagging kindly call Hiland 8761.

All those who have not settled for tickets for the Spring Dance, of May Twenty-fourth, kindly do so as soon as possible.

The Montefiore Hospital Association:—The Montefiore Hospital desires to thank the following donors: Mr. G. H. Oppenheim, Washington Bank Bldg., $25.00; Bequest of Mrs. Nellie Wiseman, $100.00; Council of Jewish Women, Fitzsimons Bldg., 4 gallons Ice Cream; Mrs. Dina Lewis, 1302 Locust Street, 2 pillows, 2 sheets, 2 pillow cases; Mrs. M. Bailey, 365 McKee Place, 6 sheets; Mrs. R. Rosenthal, 5911 Nicholson Street, 2 pillows; Montefiore Aid Society, 5 gallons ice cream, 36 loaves bread; Mr. Dave Hill, 258 Fifth Avenue, flowers; Misses Beatrice and Sara Ruth Goldenson, 218 Summit Street, Knoxville, Pa., chiffonier for children's ward; Mrs. S. Silverberg, 5854 Ellsworth Avenue, 1 large feather bed; Mrs. H. Moses, 2512 Breckenridge Street, 1 case jam; Mrs. J. D. Ladin, 2552 Center Avenue, 3 pillows; Mrs. S. B. Aronson, 2540 Breckenridge Street, 1 chair; Hermes-Groves Dairy Co., 30 molds ice cream; Mrs. H. Breman, 5508 Hays Street, "In memory of father and mother and sister, Mrs. Neiman," 6 pillows, 12 sheets; Mr. D. Hill, 258 Fifth Avenue, flowers.

MEMORIAL SERVICES AT THE J. M. GUSKY HEBREW ORPHANAGE AND HOME

June 4—Jacob Klee, Charles Falk, Freda R. Edel, Rose Reedelheim, Morris Feuchtwanger, Rachel F. Goldman, Ida Zeugschmidt Silverman, Max Buka.

June 11—Johanna Gusky, Esther Robin, Julia Weil Trauerman.

June 18—Weir Mitchell Morganstern, Helen R. Brown, Carrie Joseph Arnfeld, Bernard Guggenheim.

June 25—George Levy, Henry A. Eisfelder, Jacob Klein, Gustav Kann, Isaac Lehman.

DONATIONS

The following donations were received during the month: Mrs. Cass Sunstein, $10.00 towards the Children's Fund, in memory of Cass Sunstein; Mr. and Mrs. L. Joseph, a festive dinner; Mrs. Sol. Bachman, a candy treat; Mrs. Maurice Falk; a theater party and ice cream treat; Mr. Clyde Kingsbacher, ice cream; Mrs. Charles Ruben, a treat of candy; Mr. Julius Eiges, $5.00 for a cake treat in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of his son, Sidney;

Miss Minnie Affelder, a fruit treat in memory of her father, Jacob Affelder; Mrs. Herman Hirsh, $2.00 towards the Children's Fund.

Through the generosity of Mr. Leo Lehman, four large lawn swings, three small children's swings, and ten spades were received. Mr. Lehman has been more than liberal to the children, and his kindness is greatly appreciated.

FOUNDERS DAY AT GUSKY ORPHANAGE

The annual Founders Day exercises at the J. M. Gusky Hebrew Orphanage and Home, Perrysville Avenue, North Side, will be held on Sunday afternoon, June Eleventh. A program of songs, recitations and dances is being prepared by the children under the direction of the Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Deutelbaum. Short addresses will be made by Hon. Josiah Cohen, Honorary President of the Orphanage; Mr. A. L. Solomon, President, and other officials of the Home.

A very cordial invitation is extended to all members of the community to be present on this occasion.

Our Neighboring Communities

McKeesport, Pa.:—A sacred concert was held in McKeesport at the Capital Theater, May Twenty-eighth, 8:30 P. M., under the auspices of the Blue Bird Club.

The Jewish music lovers of this city were treated to a fine program of Hebrew and English numbers by the following artists: Belle Miller, soprano, of McKeesport, who sang Elli Elli, and other numbers; Miss Madylin Miller read in her usual excellent manner, "The Master's Violin," accompanied by Miss Minnie Adler; and the violin selection of David Schlessinger, of East Pittsburgh, were greatly enjoyed by the audience.

A pleasant surprise was the singing of sacred Hebrew melodies by Cantor Jacques Jacobovitz, of Pittsburgh, recently of Budapest, Hungary. Cantor Jacobovitz, has a wonderful operatic tenor voice and brought forth great applause. Many encores were requested. An impromptu reception followed.

The members of the Blue Bird Club were highly complemented for bringing together such a fine group of talent and the excellent program rendered.

McKees Rocks, Pa.:—A very interesting meeting of the McKees Rocks Hebrew School Association was held recently at the Synagogue.

The Visiting Committee to the Sabbath School reported that the school, under the capable supervision of Mr. Frankel, is progressing favorably. The attendance is increasing and the work being accomplished is gratifying.

The chairman of the school board of the Talmud Torah, also reports that very good results are being accomplished under the supervision of the teacher, Mr. J. Simon.

The association is planning a joint entertainment by the Sabbath School and Talmud Torah, in the very near future. An outing will be given to the children of both schools at the close of the school session.

After the meeting the members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Stein. Refreshments were served.

New Castle, Pa.:—New Castle section of the Council of Jewish Women held its last meeting for the present season Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. Kline, South Mercer Street, with Mrs. M. Samuels as associate hostess. There was a large number of members present. In observation of Music Week, Miss Florence Weinberg sang several solos. A letter of thanks was received from the adopted war orphan.

Mrs. M. Feuchtwanger, President of the local organization, read a very interesting message in which she reviewed the year's work. During the year the Jewish Ladies local section of the National Council of Jewish Women. A number of committees to take care of the various branches of work were appointed and much has been accomplished by all of these. The summer months will be devoted to sewing for the needy.

Jeannette, Pa., Council of Jewish Women:—The last meeting of the present year of activities of the local council of Jewish Women took place Tuesday evening in the home of the President, Mrs. Jennie Finkelhor, of North First Street, with Mrs. Finkelhor, of New York City and Mrs. Ziskind of Greensburg, the guests of the Council. Mrs. Louis Whiteman read the Psalm following the opening of the meeting by the president. A report of the year's work as given by the president, together with that of the treasurer, indicated a year of great activity for the organization just closing the first year of its existence. The treasurer's report indicated that the total receipts of the Council were $1,609.00 and the expenditures, $1,413.00, leaving a balance in the treasury amounting to $195.00. The greatest achievement of the local Council, has been the establishment of the Sunday School as part of the program of Religious Education as directed by the National organization and the report of this work for the year, was given by the chairman, Mrs. Levinson.

The election of officers for the new year resulted in the choice of Mrs. Charles Ratner, President; Mrs. Jennie Finkelhor, Vice President; Mrs. I. Polevoi, Second Vice President; Mrs. J. Girvetz, Third Vice President; Mrs. L. Whiteman, Treasurer; Mrs. Matt Arkin, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Sam Hodess, Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. Ziskind made a short address complimenting the women on the work of the year under the excellent leadership of Mrs. Finkelhor. The new President, Mrs. Ratner, was introduced and after paying a fine tribute to Mrs. Finkelhor as leader in the work of the council, presented her with a chest of silver as a mark of appreciation from the members of the council, voicing at the same time, the regrets of all the members that they will be deprived of the close fellowship of Mrs. Finkelhor very soon through her removal to Pittsburgh to make her home. Following the adjournment of the meeting, most excellent refreshments were served by the hostess.

Monongahela City:—The Religious School celebrated their closing exercises in the Odd Fellows Hall, on Sunday, May Twenty-eighth. The entertainment was one of the greatest successes of the year. Every number on the program was performed with remarkable success. Songs by the entire school, dancing, and musical selections by the school orchestra were features. In addition to the individual and combined musical numbers the most interesting feature of the entertainment was a play entitled "The Happy Beggar." Mrs. William Oppenheim designed the costumes for the children.

The program of the entertainment was as follows: A prayer, Sarah Uram. Poem "Ruth the Gleaner," Dora Moscovitz. Poem, "True Patience," Esther Goldstein. Violin solo, Selma Weinberg. Songs by entire school. Musical selections by school orchestra. First Psalm, Jack Weisberg. Sabbath Eve, Ruth Cohen, Dialogue, Leonard Uram and Nomi Sklar. Twenty-third Psalm, Robert Perchesky. A Prayer of the Child, Sylvia Sklar. Play, "The Happy Beggar." King, Sam Nelson; Queen, Freda Goldstein; Court Physician, Myron Shuler; First Assistant, Mildred Alshuler; Wise Man, Sam Weisberg; Beggar, William Cohn; Nurse, Gladys Goldstein; Attendants to King, Stanley Shuler, Milton Uram, Goldie Moskovitz; Valets, Robert Sklar, Jerome Weinberg; Page, Abe Janoff. Musical accompaniments by Miss Minnie Cohn. Stage manager, Abe Janoff. Violin duet, Sam Weisberg and Joseph Shaeffer. Violin solo, William Cohn. A Russian dance, Adelaide Benjamin.

After the play certificates of honor were awarded to the children of the various classes for excellent attendance and perfect scholarship.

The following children received the honor certificates—Ruth Cohn, Esther Goldstein, Jerome Weinberg, Dora Moscovitz, Mildred Alshuler, Freda Goldstein and Sylvia Cohn. The presentation of the honor certificates was assigned to Mr. Nathan Dubbs, Superintendent of the Ethical School.

In appreciation of the hard and faithful work done by the teachers of the school, the Mother's Club of Monongahela City presented each one with a wonderful present.

The closing of the school, for the vacation period, marks the close of one of the most successful year in the school's existence.

Confirmation will also be on the school program for the year. A joint confirmation with several other schools has been arranged and will take place on Sunday, June Eighteenth. The members of the Confirmation Class, Sylvia Cohn and Freda Goldstein, were each awarded the Certificates of Honor for perfect attendance and scholarship.

Kosmox Klub, McKeesport, Pa.:—The dance committee for the Summer Gambol of the Klub is completing arrangements for the coming dance. The new Flower Garden, which will be the scene of the affair, is being built along the Long Run Road, and will be opened for this dance on Thursday, June Twenty-ninth. Dancing will be from nine to one o'clock.

Invitations will be mailed next week and the committee requests that those who contemplate attending write R. Fisher, 922 Jenny Lind Street, McKeesport, Pa.

McKeesport, Pa., I. O. B. B.:—The entertainment committee of McKeesport Lodge No. 57, Independent Order B'nai B'rith, is making plans for the annual picnic to Jewish children of the city and their parents. For many years past it has been the custom of the order to be host to the children at their picnic and this year's affair promises to be the record event.

The picnic will be held at Olympia Park on Flag Day, Wednesday, June Fourteenth, and all Jewish children of the city and their parents, sisters, brothers and friends are invited. Special cars have been secured to convey the children to the park. Amusement tickets will be given free to all the children. Check rooms will be provided at the park for baskets of the picnickers.

In the afternoon a great program of sports has been arranged. There will be the usual races and events for the kiddies, in addition to special races for members of the lodge, a fat man's race, teachers' race and a number of events which will be new this year. A long list of prizes will be given the winners of the various sporting events, which will be followed by a baseball game. Those who desire to secure places on the teams should communicate with Max Zugsmith, chairman of the sport committee. The prizes will be displayed about one week in advance in the window of Mike Ziskind's lunch room, Market street.

In the evening a dance will be given. The committee on these arrangements has already engaged the services of a large orchestra to furnish the music. This orchestra is one very well known in the city and whose dance music is much sought for.

The entire membership of the B'nai B'rith is very anxious that everyone make note of the date of the picnic, June Fourteenth, and to keep that day open. Henry Plaster, the Chairman of the committee, will at all times give any information desired concerning the picnic. He can be found at the Roth bank any day during banking hours.

Homestead Lawn Fete:—Elaborate plans are under way for the Lawn Fete to be given by the Homestead Y. W. H. A. on Tuesday evening, June Twentieth. All committees have been appointed and they are doing their utmost to make this affair successful. The refreshments and novelties are certain to please all who participate in this summer social event, and the Y. W. H. A. assures all who attend a very enjoyable evening. Come and join the "Y" on June Twentieth in their initial fete.

Carnegie, Pa.:—The Jewish Community Circle presented its initial vaudeville performance, Sunday evening, May Twenty-first, at the Lyric Theater, and proved a huge success. The house was filled to capacity with an enthusiastic audience.

On Sunday evening, May Twenty-eighth, the last Literary meeting of the season was held at Circle Headquarters. One of the outstanding features of the evening was a very inspiring talk by Attorney Louis Brodó, of Pittsburgh. Mr. Max Mendeloff, Pittsburgh, violinist, delighted the audience with several musical selections.

The Literary meetings will be discontinued until the fall, and arrangements have been made for various outdoor activities for the ensuing months.

Wedding Photographs

$8.00 to $18.00 PER DOZEN

C. WRENN

6117 Penn Ave., East End
Over McCullough Drug Co.