

Institutions Clubs

SEVEN W.'S WILL CAMP.

For the fourth consecutive season the Seven W. Outing Club of Pittsburgh will encamp on the shores of Conneaut Lake for two weeks, beginning with July 19.

On Sunday, July 28th; the Seven W.'s will keep open house.

SISTERHOOD CALENDARS.

Get busy boys and girls. The calendars are ready for you and can be procured at the Temple from Mr. Callomon.

HERZL LITERARY SOCIETY.

The first anniversary concert of the Herzl Literary Society will be held at the Zionist Institute on Sunday, July 19, at 8:00 o'clock sharp. The following persons will participate in the program: Mr. Golding, A. Cohen, Master Hoffman, I. Cohen, Jacobson, M. Cahan, S. Levine, M. Meyers, I. Meyers, Mr. Werner and Miss J. Herman A. Alpert, S. Steinberg, S. Shaeffer, V. Cohen, R. Gettis.

MISS EDITH FRIEDMAN AT THE SCHENLEY LAWN CONCERTS.

Quite a little coterie of friends are looking forward to the debut of Miss Edith Friedman next Tuesday evening. As a child of twelve Miss Friedman appeared in recitals under the direction of her first teacher, Prof. Huey of McKeesport. In September, 1909, she took up the serious study of the classics under Mr. W. K. Steiner and in the interim has played from memory every important solo composition by Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert and Weber, besides many modern works. In arranging for this, her first appearance with orchestra, Mr. Steiner left the choice of the composition to Mr. Bernthaler who suggested the Liszt Concerto in E flat. As an evidence of her thoroughness and proficiency it is certainly due Miss Friedman to state that she saw this work for the first time on the nineteenth of June.

BUSINESS MEETING SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY, JULY 21st.

OUTING AT MOSS SIDE GROVE AUGUST 9th.

President Applestein has made an urgent appeal for all members to attend the Y. M. H. A. July business meeting on Tuesday, the 21st. The building committee has been on a diligent search for a location for the new building and has found a proposition par excellence. At this business meeting, a vote will be taken to decide the location of the Y. M. H. A. for all time. Hence it is particularly necessary that every member come. There will also be an election held for three members of the Board of Directors, and regular business will be transacted. There is too much at stake for any member to stay away.

Plans for the monster Y. M. H. A. Day at Moss Side Grove are going along merrily, and the prediction is made that this affair will eclipse all former ones of the same nature.

Numerous features have been arranged for the entertainment of the picnickers. In addition to the games, races, field events and dancing, Pittsburgh Y. M. H. A. baseball team will play the Brad-dock Y. M. H. A. for the Western Pennsylvania Y. M. H. A. championship. A large silver loving cup will be awarded the winning team by the Pittsburgh Y. M. H. A. Each team has won a game of the two played, and the deciding game promises to be a hummer. Interest is at a high pitch and both teams are confident of victory. Both will use their strongest lineups in the game.

The committee in charge has arranged for frequent trains from the Union Station, and for motor busses to carry from McKeesport those who come by street car. Tickets will be twenty-five cents (25c) per person, and the proceeds will be added to the Y. M. H. A. building funds.

CONGREGATION B'NAI ISRAEL.

At a recent meeting held in the Masonic Temple, Collins avenue, East End, it was resolved and a committee was chosen, composed of F. J. Frankenstein, Charles Friedberg, Z. Barach, Mr. Landon and Allen Davis, to choose a new Rabbi for the coming season.

McKEES ROCKS RELIGIOUS SCHOOL PICNIC.

The members of the religious school in McKees Rocks conducted under the auspices of the Council of Jewish Women, on Wednesday, July 15th, had their annual basket picnic in Schenley Park. The picnic was arranged by Mrs. Moses Ruslander, the superintendent, who secured automobiles to take the children and their parents, 200 of them, from the street car out to the shelter house at 1 o'clock. There they had their supper and ice cream furnished by the members of the religious school committee of the Council of which Miss Cecelia Goldsmith is chairman.

Among those who gave the use of their automobiles were Mrs. Cass Sunstein, Miss Goldsmith, Mrs. Morris Kaufmann, Aaron DeRoy and Joseph DeRoy.

Mrs. Ruslander was assisted during the afternoon and evening by Miss Goldsmith and the teachers in the school, Miss Nettie Simon, Miss Mildred Greenwall, Miss Marion Finesilver, David Lencher and Oscar Harker.

GAJEGA FRAT.

Conveyed by means of a gayly decorated truck, and accompanied by an orchestra, the members of the Gajega Frat and their friends picknicked at Kenlin Farm last Sunday. The affair was held in honor of Mr. Nat Gruber and his fiancée, Miss Marie Gilson of Cleveland, Ohio. Among the features adding to the enjoyment of the picnickers was a dance, held on the pavilion of the farm.

AT THE GUSKY ORPHANAGE.

The Little Folks Now Have a Fine Victrola and Some Excellent Records.

The possibility of many delightful hours in the company of the creators of sweet and beautiful music has been added to the things that make for happiness in the lives of the little folks who dwell at the Gusky Orphanage. This latest acquisition comes in the form of a splendid victrola, which was placed at the Home during the past week through the medium of Mrs. Josiah Cohen. On Founders' Day last, Mrs. Cohen received from a friend of the institution a gift of one hundred dollars, with the request that she employ that sum for any purpose that she deemed advisable for the orphanage or its inmates. To this generous contribution there were added a number of purely voluntary gifts by other friends of the children, with the result that enough money came into Mrs. Cohen's hands for the purchase of the victrola which is now a part of the recreational and educational equipment at the orphanage.

Lover of music that she is, and fully aware of the excellent character of entertainment and cultural development which such a gift would mean to the children at the Home, Mrs. Cohen did not hesitate to apply this fund, which was entrusted to her with unrestricted power of disposition, to the acquisition of this victrola, and that she did not err in her judgment has already become more than manifest by the keen interest which the children are taking in this excellent musical instrument and by the intense pleasure which they seem to find in the melodies which it produces. Though in their midst but a comparatively short time, the victrola has already been accepted by the little folks as a very helpful and delightful friend, in whose presence these boys and girls are charmed and entertained, and all the while educated to the better things in the realm of that gentle art through which man's soul speaks out in sweetest melody. No day is now complete at the orphanage in which the children have not communed with this mystic spirit of the musical world!

And yet, wonderful instrument that it is, this splendid possession of the little folks would be but a useless ornament were not the friends of the boys and girls generous enough to provide the records which this almost human device translates into sweetest music. Some of these friends have already evidenced their interest in the children and their desire to assist in providing artistic entertainment for them by contributing a number of records for use with this victrola, with the result that the young people now have in their victrola "library" the following selections: "Hearts and Flowers," Shubert's "Serenade," Title's "Serenade," "Favorita," sung by Caruso; "Jewel Song" from "Faust," sung by Melba; Selections from "The Chocolate Soldier," "My Old Kentucky Home," sung by Alma Gluck; "Macushla," sung by John McCormack; "Gems from Madame Sherry," "Stille Nacht," sung by Julia Culp; "Narcissus," played by Pryor's Band; "Whistle It" by Jones; "A Girl Like Me" by Elizabeth Wheeler; Intermezzo from "Rusticanna," "Tales of Hoffman," played by Victor Herbert's Concert Band; "In a Clock Store;" "In the Heart of the Black Forest;" "Yale Boala Song;" and "Old Nassau."

Those kind friends whose contributions have made the victrola possible for the little folks, as well as those whose gifts of records have made the enjoyment of the other gift a reality, may rest secure in the knowledge that they have added much to the happiness and the pleasure of the boys and girls who have come, to sojourn for a few short years or more, at the Gusky Orphanage. And, as for those whose future gifts of records will increase the number and variety of the children's musical selections, they may know that the measure of happiness is not yet full for the little folks, and that good friends may become still better friends if they but realize the possibility!

OFFICERS INSTALLED AT NEW CASTLE AND ELLWOOD CITY LODGES.

B'Nai B'Rith Organizations Making Good Progress in Those Communities.

Under the joint auspices of New Castle and Ellwood City Lodges, an enthusiastic meeting of members of the Independent Order B'Nai B'Rith was held on Sunday afternoon last at New Castle, Pa. A very large gathering of members of the Order participated in the afternoon's exercises, and an interesting program was carried out for the occasion.

Officers of both lodges were officially installed by A. L. Solomon, of Pittsburgh, Past President of District Grand Lodge No. 3, assisted by Marcus Feuchtwanger, of New Castle, Second Vice President of the Grand Lodge, and David H. Goldman, of Pittsburgh, Chairman of the Western Pennsylvania Propaganda Committee. The afternoon's exercises also included a large class initiation, which was conducted by Mr. Solomon, assisted by Messrs. Feuchtwanger, Goldman and Milton Joseph.

The cause of the B'Nai B'Rith is making excellent progress in both New Castle and Ellwood City, and Sunday's enthusiastic meeting was another evidence of the hold which the work of this Order has upon the people of these two communities. In both New Castle and Ellwood City splendid religious schools are conducted by the B'Nai B'Rith Lodges, and many other Jewish activities are sponsored by the members of the Order and their friends.

RABBI JOSEPH OF ALLENTOWN, SPOKE AT STATE COLLEGE.

Rabbi Theodore F. Joseph of Allentown, last night at the Penn State College, delivered an illustrated travelogue on "Paris, the London and Versailles."

The Schwab auditorium was filled with 1000 or more teachers attending the summer session. The lecturer was introduced by Prof. Foster, head of the department of Romance languages.

Rabbi Joseph also preached before an audience of about 1500 that assembled on the front campus. The subject of his sermon was entitled: "The Brotherhood of Man."

TO LET—Nicely furnished front room with private family; handy to car and railroad; board if desired. East End district. Address "M" care of Criterion.

WANTED—One of two gentlemen can have room with or without board in private family; convenient to car line. Apply 805 Hights street.