

Lifander, one of the visitors, very graciously volunteered to tell stories to the children. Later in the afternoon the members served ice cream, cake, fruit and lollypops to both kiddies and visitors.

The success of the affair was due to the untiring efforts of the club leader, Miss Jeannette Herman. The members take this opportunity to express their appreciation to Miss Herman for her interest in the welfare of the club.

Dillinger Livingston Club:—An exceedingly interesting meeting was held on Sunday, January Seventh, at the I. K. S. Immediately following the members attended an informal social at the home of Mr. Theodore Tobin. In basket ball circles the team is still among the leaders. Last Monday night the team defeated the Universal, Chiropractic College to the tune of 32-28. But the greatest task is still ahead. Next Tuesday night at the Coffey Club floor the team will meet the A. P. Moore quintet. The dramatic talent is at present rehearsing its contribution to the I. K. S. Club Night to be held at Schenley High School on Monday, January Fifteenth, 1923.

Dillinger Livingston Secondary Club:—The regular meeting was held on Monday evening, January Eighth, at the I. K. S. A good program was rendered including a debate, Resolved, That a Commission Form of Government Be Adopted. Mr. Morris Gelman was added to the membership of the club. The club team met its first defeat by stepping out of its class and playing the strong Treat-Em Rough Club, being defeated by the un decisive score of 16-13. This was the first of a three-game series, the second game to be played at the I. K. S. Sunday, January Fourteenth.

Hilary Club:—The regular meeting was held on Friday, January Fifth. An advertising card, under the auspices of the Hilary Club, will be produced. Many applications for membership are being handed to the Membership Committee. The club has secured the services of Mr. Meyer Cohen, the well-known violinist, and leader of the Melody Boys, to perform on Friday, January Twelfth. This is the first of a series of novel entertainments to be given under the auspices of the club committee.

Junior La Tovah Society:—A special meeting will be held Thursday, January Eighteenth, at the Jewish Center, Negley Avenue, at 8 P. M., when a delightful social and entertainment will be given. The election of officers will take place. All members are urged to be present.

Keve Klub:—The regular meeting was held at the home of Miss Tillie Bazar, Collins Avenue, Thursday evening, January Fourth, 1923. Election of officers was held with the following results: Miss Ida Rubenstein, President; Miss Irene Greenberg, Treasurer; Miss Berdie Berman, Secretary; Miss Nellie Harris, Reporter, and Mrs. Leah Broida, Social Chairman. A very interesting program was given, including a discussion of current topics. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Berdie Berman, Locust Street, Thursday evening. All members are urged to be present.

Philomatheans Club:—A meeting was held Sunday evening, January Seventh, at the home of Miss Ruth Greenstein, 3618 Frazier Street. The program for the evening consisted of the study of the drama. Miss Esther Ginsburg spoke on the Technique and Criticisms of the Drama. Miss Bess Lerner discussed some noteworthy paragraphs from the book, "Problems of the Playwright." Miss Ruth Solwitz read an interesting paper on "The Drama From the Romantic to the Modern Period." The meeting adjourned to meet again Sunday evening, January Twenty-eighth, at the home of Miss Esther Ginsburg, 30 Trent Street.

Sable Club:—The regular meeting scheduled for last Sunday evening was postponed in order to permit the club members to attend the banquet given in the Fort Pitt Hotel in honor of Harry Hoffman, also a member. Mr. Hoffman has been playing in Detroit for some time. After the banquet, all present went to Mr. Hoffman's home, where a very pleasant social evening was enjoyed. There will be a regular meeting this Sunday evening, and it is very important that everyone be present, as nomination of officers will take place.

Enoch Rauh Club:—A meeting was held at the home of Albert Zimmer, on Sunday afternoon. Plans were discussed for the anniversary affair and the banquet, to be held soon. A very successful game was staged by the Enoch Rauh Club and the Lawrenceville "Y" Leaders, the Enoch Rauhs swamping their championship rivals to the tune of 33-19. Dancing followed the game. Music was furnished by "The Queen City" Orchestra and intermittent singing by "Micky" Kalson and his aids. The club takes this opportunity to thank the public at large for the loyal support they gave in making this affair a complete success and to Jack Roland Rosenberg, of Schenley High School who officiated in the preliminaries.

To conclude a most enjoyable evening the 25 members of the club went to Gold's Dining Room and there celebrated the well-earned victory. Speakers for the evening were L. D. Schmidt, G. Wheeler and N. Green.

On Sunday afternoon, January Twenty-eighth, 1923, at 2:15 P. M. a novel entertainment will be given at the Gusky Orphanage by the members. "The Queen City" Orchestra will again entertain. In the evening the third anniversary of the club will be celebrated in the Blue Room of the Wm. Penn Hotel. The Social Committee for this affair includes M. Wheeler, Chairman; M. Paris, G. Wheeler and A. Zimmer. On Saturday, January Thirteenth, the Shadyside Triangles will be met at Motor Square Garden, a preliminary to the big Second Story Morry game.

Our Neighboring Communities

Fayette City, Pa.:—Twenty couple attended the Box Social held under the auspices of the Fayette City Hebrew Sunday School at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glick, at Arnold City, Pa., on Sunday evening, December Thirtieth. The house was decorated very appropriately for the occasion.

Mr. Glick auctioned the boxes and netted for the cause, $63.00. Donations were made to the extent of $2.25 by Mr. Samuel Glick. All had a very enjoyable time. Mr. David Rosenberg, of Fayette City, Pa., acted as treasurer for the occasion.

Irwin, Pa.:—The regular monthly meeting of the Council of Jewish Women, Irwin Section, was held Thursday evening, January Fourth, at the home of Mrs. M. Katz. The men were also present.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. T. Berkovitz, at 8 o'clock. A portion of the scriptures was read by the Chaplain, Mrs. H. Bergad. Due to the absence of the Secretary, the minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. M. Kanenson. A report of the finances was made by Mrs. S. W. Kaplan. Mrs. Santer, Chairman of the Philanthropic Committee, made her report.

The Council and Sunday School regret, that due to the illness of their Sunday School Superintendent, Mr. Reuben Moltz, of Pittsburgh, must discontinue this work. Mr. H. Nack, also of Pittsburgh, will succeed him.

At the conclusion of business, Miss Miriam Schonfield, a guest of the Council, gave a very inspiring talk on "Co-operation," after which Mr. Dillinger Livingston also a guest, gave a very interesting talk on "Extension Work." The Council presented Mr. Livingston with a check for $40.00 for the cause.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

McDonald, Pa.:—An enthusiastic and inspiring meeting at McDonald, on Sunday evening, January Seventh, for the purpose of organizing a McDonald Chapter of Hadassah, was addressed by Mrs. A. H. Vixman, of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Vixman, in her very interesting manner, outlined in brief form the various necessary social and charitable organizations of the community, and spoke in detail on the accomplishments, past and present, the aims, the ideals, and the future work of Hadassah. Mrs. D. Toukonogy, Field Secretary for Pittsburgh, was present with all the inspiration of her enthusiasm for Hadassah.

The matter of organizing the local chapter resulted in the election of the following officers: President, Mrs. M. H. Levison; First Vice President, Mrs. H. Levine, Second Vice President, Mrs. S. Miller; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Maurice Simon; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Max Schmidt; Treasurer, Mrs. L. Levison, Chairman of Social Committee, Miss Bernheimer; Chairman of Sewing Committee, Mrs. Edw. F. Stein.

It is the aim of this chapter to reach Sturgeon, Oakdale and Burgettstown, and to bring the Jewish community closer together.

Ezra Club:—The stunt meeting which was held at the home of Miss Ethel Stien, Wylie Avenue, proved a success. The color scheme was carried out in gray and blue. Games and dancing were the diversions of the afternoon.

The next meeting will be held at the home of its president, Miss Anna Stept, Trent Street.

Taft Club of Washington, Pa.:—A meeting was held January Second at the home of Miss Helen Lewis, North Franklin Street. Election of officers took place, resulting as follows: Miss Pearl Kagan, President; Miss Vivian Cohen, Vice President; Miss Marian Landay, Secretary; Miss Freda Rosenberg, Treasurer; Miss Libby Wilner, Social Chairman.

Plans are being made for a play, details to be announced later.

New Castle, Pa.:—The Jewish Ladies' Relief Society of New Castle celebrated its tenth anniversary in most fitting fashion on Sunday evening, January Seventh, at the I. O. O. F. Hall on North Mill Street. An elaborate dinner for fifty-eight was served at 6:30 P. M., under the direction of Mrs. Newmark, Vice President of the society. The toastmaster of the evening, Mr. Bernard Kline, then called upon Mrs. A. Frank, the first

The program of the evening consisted of the following numbers: Dance and Song, Miss Rella Suttin and Master Jerome Chaimovitz; Song, Master Herbert Suttin; Vocal Solo, Miss Dorothy Liftman; Vocal Solo, Mrs. Morris Chaimovitz; Vocal Solo, Miss Madeline Hirsh; Piano Numbers, Misses Madeline Hirsh and Goldie Raskin.

McKeesport, Pa.:—The Kosmox "Winter Classic," which will be held Wednesday, January Twenty-fourth, at the K. of C. Ball Room, promises to be one of the most successful social affairs that have been held in this vicinity for the past few years.

The club has secured as the musical attraction one of the greatest orchestras that has played in Pennsylvania. "Seymour Simon and his Aristocratic Orchestra" of Detroit, Mich., consisting of ten high class musicians, will furnish the music. The orchestra features Seymour Simon who plays the piano and cello, who is one of the foremost songwriters in America today. Johnny Fink, who plays the piano, as the composer of the song "Home-sick," which has recently been released by Irving Berlin. Thomas Jones, the tuba player, is one without an equal. He is a brother of the famous Isham Jones. The orchestra features twenty-five instruments and two pianos. Invitations will be mailed the early part of next week.

The committee in charge includes: Abe J. Rosenbleet, Bernard Levy, Robert Fisher, Sydney Mermelstein.

Braddock, Pa.:—The Renaissance Club of Braddock held its first social event of the year on Sunday evening, January Seventh, at the Bessmer Club, Ninth Street, Braddock, Pa. A solo dance was given by little Ruth Berkowitz. Dancing and refreshments followed. This affair proved to be a huge success and it is the intention of the club to hold a similar affair in the near future.

The club is planning to hold an open meeting in a few weeks and invite the clubs of the neighboring communities.

Bentleyville, Pa.:—The regular monthly meeting of the Jewish Mothers' Club of Bentleyville was held at the Community Center on Thursday evening, January Fourth, Mrs. Charles Gessner, President, presiding.

The next meeting was opened with a prayer by the newly-appointed chaplain, Mrs. O. H. Malakoff. The Secretary, Mrs. M. Levin, read the minutes of the previous meeting.

A detailed report of the card party recently held was given by the Chairman, Mrs. S. S. Sidle and the results were very gratifying, the sum of $45 having been realized. A donation of five dollars was sent to the Bickur Cholin Society of Pittsburgh by the club.

Through the courtesy of the Mothers' Club each child of the Religious School, which is conducted under the auspices of the club, was presented with a Chanukah treat. Mrs. Ben Bender, Superintendent, and the Misses Anna and Mae Goldman, teachers, were also presented with a Chanukah Gift.

Following the business meeting a delightful luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Joseph Kossis and Mrs. S. S. Sidle.

Connellsville, Pa.:—The regular monthly meeting of the Council of Jewish Women (Connellsville Section), held Thursday evening, January Fourth, at the B'nai Brith rooms, was well attended. Mrs. Sol Goldstone presided. It was voted upon to send $5 to American Pro-Fa Lasha Committee; also $5 to National Jewish Hospital at Denver. Personal donations amounting to $25 were given to be sent to the National Farm School. Following the business program Mrs. J. French Kerr, President of the local Civic League, gave a splendid talk on Civic Work, which was enjoyed by all.

Notice to Junior Organizations

All Notices of Junior Organizations must reach this office not later than Wednesday Afternoon, Three O'clock, of each week in order to insure insertion in the Current Issue.