

Schenley Fuel & Supply Company

R. BUKA, Pres.—Schenley 4668-4669

Dependable Quality

Bituminous, Smokeless and Domestic Coke

will be honored by the presence of Dr. Solomon Ehrman, noted leader of Agudath Israel, who has arrived recently in America.

Dr. Ehrman is a well known Jewish scholar, a grandson of Dr. Samson Raphael Hirsch, founder of modern Jewish orthodoxy in Germany; he is a member of the executive committee of Agudath Israel, and chairman of the Central Palestine Bureau of the Agudath Israel in Frankfurt-on-Main.

Dr. Ehrman was a delegate of the Agudath Israel at Geneva, where he submitted to the League of Nations a petition concerning the Palestine Communities Ordinance, that was granted.

EMANUEL DYM ELECTED PITTSBURGH STATE BANK PRESIDENT

From bookkeeper to bank president has been the rise of Emanuel Dym, who was elected president of the Pittsburgh State Bank at a meeting of the board of directors. He became employed in the bank as a bookkeeper in 1913 and had advanced to the position of cashier when he was chosen as the head. The bank's assets are given as $1,500,000.

Emanuel Dym

At the same time Joseph J. Birmingham was elected cashier to succeed Mr. Dym, and the following were chosen as the board of directors: Frank R. S. Bramer, Morris Abel, Dr. A. I. Wise and Emanuel Dym.

Sisterhood, Congregation Poale Zedeck

The next meeting of the Sisterhood of Congregation Poale Zedeck will be held on Sunday afternoon, January 17th, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. S. Hausman, 720 North Negley Avenue, East End. Election of officers and other matters of importance will take place. All sisters are accordingly urged to be present.

All members are asked to keep Wednesday afternoon, January 21st, open, as the card party which Mrs. Joseph Klein will give at her home, 1461 Inverness Street, for the benefit of the Sisterhood, will be held at that time. A large attendance of members and their friends is looked for, and a pleasant afternoon is assured those who will attend.

Ladies' Friendship Society, North Side

The regular monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. H. Hollander, Elsinore Square, on Wednesday evening, January 6th. After the business discussion a delightful luncheon was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. S. Lehman, East Ohio Street, North Side.

Junior Hadassah

The Junior Hadassah card party, owing to a conflict of dates, has been postponed from January 28th to Monday evening, February 1st. The affair is free to paid-up members and the members of the Board of Directors will act as hostesses. Attractive prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. The place is Congress of Women's Clubs, Penn Avenue. Those members who do not have the opportunity to pay their dues before the night of the card party may do so at the door on that night. Miss Sara Goldfeder is in charge of arrangements.

At a special executive meeting of all members held Tuesday evening, January 12th, at the Tree of Life, Miss Flora Snyder, president, presented an interesting proposition, which will yield monthly returns to the Junior Hadassah. Through the courtesy of Mr. D. J. Tonkonogy, manager of the Supreme Amusement Company, Junior Hadassah has been offered a percentage on the sale of all tickets made by its members for the concert to be given by Cherniavsky's Jazz Band in Carnegie Music Hall, Wednesday, January 20th. This band will come to Pittsburgh direct from Buffalo. It has toured Boston, Chicago, Rochester, Detroit, New York and other cities, and has everywhere been greeted with applause. An excellent program is promised Pittsburghers. Tickets are priced from $1.50 to $2, and may be obtained from Miss Lena Friedman, 5507 Avondale Place; telephone Montrose 6250. Junior Hadassah members are urged to help make this concert a success by selling as many tickets as possible.

Miss Flora Snyder, president of the organization, addressed a meeting in Braddock Monday evening, January 11th, on the subject of Hadassah. It is proposed to organize a new unit there.

The drama group will meet Thursday, January 21st, at the Tree of Life, at 8:15 P. M. Miss Bertha Glassner will give a reading from Pinski. Miss Kathleen Brauman, director of the group, urges as many members as possible to be present at this meeting, which will open the second semester's work.

The Hebrew group will meet as usual in Room 104 of the Schenley High School, on Wednesday, January 20th.

GARVIN'S LUNCH

One of the most popular lunch rooms in the city is Garvin's Lunch at 826 Liberty Avenue, in the center of town. A Garvin feature is the delicious sandwiches of all kinds which are offered. The pastries, pies and cakes, which are home baked, are of the finest and an invitation is extended Criterion readers to try this place.

All food is prepared home style and those who desire a real home cooked meal are asked to give Garvin's a visit.

DUQUESNE LIGHT COMPANY EXTENDS INTERESTING INVITATION

The Duquesne Light Company has extended an invitation to the residents of the Greater Pittsburgh community to visit their super-power plants, which are located in Cheswick, Pa. (Colfax Power Station) and Brunot's Island, North Side (Brunot's Island Power Station). Greater Pittsburgh district can be gained when it is realized that the thousands of homes in this district alone can be flooded with light by the mere pressure of a button. No doubt there are many who have been curious to see the immense plants where this electrical energy is created and stored, and this opportunity is given them to make a thorough tour of the power plants.

Cards of admission may be obtained at the office of the vice-president, 435 Sixth Avenue, Pittsburgh.

SOUTHWESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

Jewish Religious Schools Committee

Another school has been added to the list of schools under the supervision of the Southwestern District, Jewish Religious Schools Committee. Miss Schonfield, Field Supervisor, organized the Masontown Religious School on Wednesday, January 13th. The children will have a very beautiful Schule to meet in, and a very enthusiastic Ladies' Auxiliary to encourage and help them.

Miss Schonfield secured and instructed the teachers, a local superintendent, instructed the children, and formed the classes.

Miss Schonfield visited the Scottsdale Religious School on Sunday morning, January 10th, and found that, under the thorough supervision of Mr. Max Applebaum, the school is progressing splendidly.

All the schools are beginning to plan their Purim entertainments.

The Pittsburgh Teachers' Institute meeting will be held on Thursday evening, January 21st, at 8 o'clock. Rabbi S. B. Friedman, of the Paole Zedeck Schule, will be the speaker of the evening, and Miss Schonfield will give some very valuable information about the new Purim materials.

Please do not forget the date, Thursday evening, January 21st, at the Rodef Shalom Temple Assembly Rooms, at 8 o'clock.

FILLION VIOLIN STUDIOS ANNOUNCE SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The competition for the four scholarships announced by the Fillion Violin Studios, demonstrated the large amount of real violin talent in Pittsburgh. The adjudicators at the final hearing on Monday evening were Mr. Harvey Gaul, Dr. Charles Heinroth and Mr. Will Earhart, who awarded highest marks to Edythe Palmer, youthful artist pupil of Ferdinand Fillion, the three other successful contestants being Walter Reider, Charles Pallos and Mark Meyer.

MORE

Power
Mileage
Speed

*Many Other Advantages
No Disadvantages*

AMOCO-GAS

A Product of The American Oil Company