

Unusual Exhibition of Rugs to Take Place at Wm. Penn Hotel

As an introductory event to the celebration of their forty-second anniversary this year, H. B. Yardum & Co. have planned a most unusual exhibit and epoch-making sale of Oriental Rugs to take place in the Ballroom on the seventeenth floor of the William Penn Hotel on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 26, 27 and 28. After this three-day exhibition in the hotel, their forty-second anniversary Sale will continue in their main store on Bigelow Boulevard and Craig Street during the entire month of June. An event of this nature, coming but seldom, it is their sincere wish that the many friends and patrons who have made possible their steady growth in the past forty-two years will take advantage of this opportunity to view the beautiful rugs in this sale in a truly magnificent setting—the gorgeous ballroom of Pittsburgh's Welcome to the World. No effort has been spared to make this a gala affair and in appreciation of their past business they have planned price concessions on their entire stock of select imported rugs which, they believe, will be of tremendous interest to all who have the artistic appreciation and the inherent desire to beautify their homes with these luxurious floor coverings from the Orient.

There will be on exhibition rugs which will thrill with their exotic charm and lasting beauty that only artists of the loom from far-off lands can effect in masterpieces of a lifetime—silky Keshans, glamorous Kirmans, lustrous Sa-rouks, mosaic Ispahans, jewel-like Tabriz and interesting Irans and Ferahans. Many of the genuine and authentic antiques belonging to the personal collection of H. B. Yardum, representing years of painstaking search, will also be on display. For the convenience of those who will be busy during the day the exhibit will be open evenings.

DEMAND "ORT" BE DISSOLVED

Moscow.—A demand that the "Ort," organization for the relief through employment of Russian Jewry, should be dissolved because it is not a proletarian institution, is voiced in a series of articles in the Emes, Yiddish Communist publication here.
