"Prayer is the soul's sincere desire
Uttered or unexpressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in a breast."
I Will Hope in God.

The days comprising Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are known as the ten days of Repentance. On the eve of the New Year the spark of faith is rekindled in every Jewish heart; steadily growing more luminous until the Day of Atonement, when a great light cleanses the spirit and warms the heart.

In these days of doubt and confusion, of hardship and war, it is imperative that we prepare ourselves for a year of service and of sacrifice, both as citizens of our great Republic and as Jews. Now more than ever must we direct our minds and thoughts toward God, so that we may be worthy of the tasks that Providence has assigned to us for the coming year. May our prayers for victory and for everlasting peace be answered so that the perfection of the world under the Kingdom of the Almighty becomes a reality.

Rabbi Jos. C. Salzman.

In years to come we shall look back on the years of 1943-1944 and recognize it as a milestone in the life of our congregation. During the current year in spite of the great task and numerous obstacles, a unity of purpose and achievement was attained which promises to be the bulwark of even greater accomplishments in the future.

A. Rosenberg H. Braun

I take this opportunity to wish the entire Jewish Community a very happy New Yaer. May the blast of the Shofar usher in a year of peace to all mankind.

Jewish women have helped mightily in spiritual activities. Again we must resolve more earnestly than ever before to participate in all activities in the Sisterhood to facilitate the work of our Religious School under the guidance of Rabbi Salzman, to practice traditional Judaism in the home and to worship God in the Synagogue.

Mrs. Samuel B. Gilbert,
Pres. Agudath Achim Sisterhood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Harris—Poroche and Prayerbooks; Mr. and Mrs. J. Blinn—Holiday Prayerbooks; Mrs. Ann Markson—Holiday Prayerbooks; Mr. and Mrs. A. Marcus—American and Jewish Flag; Mr. and Mrs. D. Rosenblatt—Shandeliers and Furniture; Mr. and Mrs. H. Markson—Carpeting and Furniture; Mr. and Mrs. W. Gross—Carpeting; Mr. and Mrs. S. Gilbert—School Books.

We have secured a uniform set of MACHZORIM Holiday Prayerbooks for the entire congregation. We ask you therefore do not bring any book with you. Please co-operate.

Our Rabbis, who want to personify every abstract idea, tell us that the Shofar is sounded "to confuse the Satan" who prosecutes us before God at the Throne of Judgment." Translated into modern phraseology, the Shofar calls upon us to subdue and check those lower impulses and traits which would condemn us before our Maker. Unless we free ourselves from the grip of bad habits, unless we uproot the weeds of selfishness, envy and greed we are doomed to spiritual stagnation and decay. "Happy is the people that knoweth the sound of the trumpet, in the light of Thy countenance O Lord."

The tenth day of Tishri is for the Jew—the holiest day of the year. On this day Scriptures tell us, God will forgive all your sins, that you may be clean before the Lord. No sin is too enormous for atonement. The greatest sin if sincerely repented, will be forgiven by a merciful God. Prayer is a most wholesome means for purification and correction. Not only will prayer be answered by Divine Power but it also helps toward our own improvement in bringing us near to holiness and keeping pure our heart and spirit.

The Synagogue Religious School will hold registration for all groups from kindergarten to confirmation from 9:45 to 12 o'clock during the next few Sunday morning classes.

The school is under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Goodman and Rabbi Jos. C. Salzman who will be assisted by a very capable faculty of trained teachers.

The innovation of establishing a religious school in our Synagogue for our boys and girls has received the fullest attention of our members and supporters of the congregation and has been heartily approved. We therefore anticipate from all parents the fullest co-operation.

The Hebrew school has begun its afternoon sessions for the coming year, under the able direction of Mr. Harry Braun, vice president, and Rabbi Jos. S. Salzman.

Boys are prepared for Bar Mitzpah. Register your children early, so that the school can get off to a good start.

Mr. Harry Markson was elected as delegate to the forth-coming convention in Atlantic City.

Heartiest greetings and New Year's wishes to all our members and friends. May the coming year bring us victory and success.

Jessie Farkas, Pres.

Friday night services have proven to be most successful in all communities. We are therefore planning to institute these services throughout the winter season. The dates will be announced right after the holidays.

The Sisterhood has started activities for the coming year. The officers are as follows: Mrs. Samuel Gilbert, president; Mrs. Abe Marcus, first vice president; Mrs. Al Zonas, second vice president; Mrs. Joe Boris, recording secretary; Mrs. Wm. Davis, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Chas. Wiesser, treasurer.

The congregation is greatly inspired by the interest shown in the newly formed choir. The members are: Eugene Balter, Marvin Braun, Roy Cohen, Bob Ganelen, Herbert Gilbert, Arthur Epstein, Harvey Cable, Jerom Froimson, Norton Mendelson, Ronny Lench, Leonard Rosenberg.

We are interested in the doings of the families that compose our community. We ask your co-operation in sending to the Bulletin whatever items you think should be included in its columns. Write or call Mrs. Wm. Goodman or Mr. H. Braun.

Immediately after the Succoth holidays, courses for adults will be inaugurated. There will be classes in elementary Hebrew and Yiddish since there were inquiries about them. All those interested, will please communicate with the Rabbi.

A committee will be in the lobby Sunday, September 17, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m., and Tuesday, September 26, from 1 p. m. Payment can be made there.
