

June 3, 1943

Agudath Achim Sisterhood

Corner Fifth Street and Sixth Avenue
Beaver Falls, Penna.

Madam Pres, Mrs. Abrams, Mothers and Daughters and Grandmothers

It is a privilege to act as toastmistress to such a fine gathering.

Mothers with pride----Daughters with adoration

Story of the celebrated Whistler in London

Guests ----- Mrs. Bress former Sisterhood member now residing in Pgh.

Mrs. Levinson, daughter of our own Mrs. Ortinberg and former member of our Sisterhood now residing in Pgh.

Mrs. Pierson Caplan, past president who regrets she is unable to be with us this evening but sends her greetings via the mails.

In our community we have a sister organization The Council of Jewish Women. I am happy to call on Mrs. Julius Averbach, the Pres. of the Council for a few words.

*Mrs. Speck Trobe
Mrs. Greenberg
Fritz Feldman - East Liverpool*

Program---It is with sincere pride that I am about to present to you the young lady responsible for our entertainment and musical program. (B. V. outstanding personality. (She is the head of the School of Drams at Geneva College, the newly elected Pres. of the W. Pa. Dental Aux., (conducts a 15 minute radio program every Thurs. afternoon over station W.K.S.T. (and ladies I'm not commercializing) and is a talented musician., and one of my very dear friends. I present to you Mrs. Max Trobe who will announce her own Readings. Thank you Gert, You were splendid.

Greetings..Mother

Mrs. Gertie Soodik, chosen to represent the Mothers needs no introduction to our own women. She is known and loved by all of us. Having served our Sisterhood well these many years and we hope for many many more years to come. It is with pride that I present to you Mrs. Gertie Soodik. (thanks Gertie I(M sure that came straight from your heart.

Greetings..Daughter

Every mother has some interesting story to relate regarding her offsprings I am no different I have one to

Agudath Achim Sisterhood

Corner Fifth Street and Sixth Avenue

Beaver Falls, Penna.

Herby Why are Mothers like Angels -- Up in the air most of the time and always harping on something.

Tonight we have with us the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blinn. Although Rosie is quite young she is a leader in the Community for she is the Pres. of the Jr. Auxiliary of the B'nai Brith. Who knows perhaps she will someday be our own Sisterhood President. I present to you Rosie Blinn who brings greetings from our daughters (thank you Rosie, Your mother must be very proud of you and we are too.)

Program--Mrs. Max Trobe has secured for us a young lady who is gifted with a lovely voice. Miss Ressonner is a Jr. Pre-Med student at Geneva College. She will sing for us accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Trobe. Miss Elizabeth Ressonner will announce her own numbers. (selections were beautiful.)

Address--What is worthwhile getting is worthwhile waiting for and now your patience shall be rewarded. We are about to hear an address from a young woman whose accomplishments are far beyond her years. (Perhaps it can be attributed to the early teachings of her beloved mother who is the well known Mrs. Barnett Davis, of Pgh. Incidentally Mrs. Davis the the Honorary 1st Vice-Pres. of the National League of the United Synagogues of America. [I have had occasion to be with Sara at several League Conventions and believe me when I say in all sincerity that she is as sweet and unassuming as she is intelligent and accomplished.

Mrs. Abrams is a past Pres. and Hon. Pres. of the Bnai Isreal Synagogue of Pgh., a member of the Young Men and Young Womens's Hebrew Choral group, Chair. of a Religious and Cultural Group, taught Sunday School At Bnai Isreal and last but not least she is the mother of two adorable little girls. In my opinion she stands for all that is fine and noble in Jewish womanhood.

It is with a great deal of pride and admiration that I present to you----- Mrs. Theo. Abrams.

[(thank you Sara your message was very inspiring, I am sure will be wiser for having heard you speak.)

Before I bring the program of the evening to a close I would like to read this little poem entitled "MOTHER"

Closing Prayer-----Religious Chairman Mrs. Perilman

Hatikvah-----Assembly