

Civic Leaders To Pay Tribute To Mayor Abe Daniels Sunday

More than 50 civic leaders from Western Pennsylvania have joined in the tribute to Mayor Abe I. Daniels which will be given this Sunday evening, October 30, at the Baldoc Country Club. Mayor Daniels will be honored at a Testimonial Dinner which will highlight the Israel Bond campaign in Connellsville, Greensburg, Jeannette, Uniontown, Mount Pleasant, Scottdale, Latrobe and Irwin.

Distinguished men in high offices, as well as leaders of many civic organizations, have written special letters of congratulations to Mayor Daniels which will be included in a Book of Tribute to be presented to him as the highlight of the dinner. The Book also will include the names of all purchasers of Israel Bonds in his honor. Mayor Daniels also will be presented with a special plaque of honor on behalf of the National Headquarters for Israel Bonds. The plaque will be presented in recognition of Mayor Daniels long and devoted service in behalf of the State of Israel Bond campaign.

Heavy Response

Jack Millstein of Greensburg, general chairman of the event, reports that a heavy response for reservations has been received and that a large crowd is expected to attend the dinner.

Community chairmen include: Connellsville and Scottdale, Norman S. Bernstein and Leon Kingley; Greensburg, S. W. Gould, Joseph Greenberg, Martin Herman and Herman Ratner; Jeannette, Julius Caplan and Milton Redlich; Mt. Pleasant, Leonard Levin; and Uniontown, Lester Cohen and Dr. Edward Kaplan.

Dr. Kingdon to Speak

Dr. Frank Kingdon, world famous journalist, will be a special guest at the dinner and a musical program will be offered by Mort Freeman, popular baritone.

Judge Samuel Braemer of Connellsville is honorary chairman of the dinner. Judge Samuel A. Weiss of Glassport and David A. Weiner of Washington, Pa. are serving as members of the committee, and will also participate in the testimonial dinner.

Beaver Valley Lodge To Hold Bond Dinner; Honor Charter Members

The Beaver Valley campaign for State of Israel Bonds will be highlighted at a dinner on Sunday evening, Nov. 13, at the Community House of the Council of Jewish Women in Beaver Falls.

The event is sponsored by B'nai B'rith Lodge No. 777, founded in 1921, and will be a Founders Day Tribute Dinner in which the past presidents will spark a tribute to the charter members of the organization. They include David Rosenblatt, Alex Miller, James Rosenberg, Shepperd Wasbutsky, Meyer B. Berkman, Charles Mann, Newton M. Samuels, Joseph Silberstein, Ellis I. Saul, Barnett Marcus and Harry Markson.

Planning the program are all the past presidents of the Lodge, Meyer Berkman, Charles Mann, Julius Arfield, Leonard Solomon, J. Q. Salmon, T. A. Tenor, Samuel Gilbert, Jesse Farkas, Morris Lench, Benjamin Lipsitz, Newton Samuels, Joseph Silberstein, I. W. Solomon, Meyer Starr, Alex Mendelson and Harry Gubits. Abe Cazen is president now.

Dr. Frank Kingdon will be the guest speaker at the dinner. Dr. Kingdon is also a columnist for the New York Post and won the Page One award for journalism in 1946.

Jacob Venger is Israel Bond chairman for B'nai B'rith in Beaver Valley. Others on the Israel Bond Committee there from B'nai B'rith in the Beaver Valley include Jack Farkas, Manuel Small, Morris Lench, Leonard Bortz, William Barnett and Samuel Gilbert.

Yeshiva Will Mark "Bar Mitzvah" Year

This year, 5716, marks the thirteenth year since the founding of the Yeshiva Achei Tmimim in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Louis Sacks

The Yeshiva is the pioneer of all-day schools in the Tri-State area. Bar Mitzvah, which symbolizes the beginning of adulthood, ushers in the era of maturity for the Yeshiva Achei Tmimim and its affiliated High School.

The PTA, with Mrs. Louis Sacks as president, has played a vital part in the fund-raising program necessary to the school's existence.

The highlight of the PTA activities is the Annual Donor Luncheon which will take place Sunday, Nov. 6, 12:30 p.m. at the William Penn Hotel. This year's theme, "The Bar Mitzvah Year," will be depicted by appropriate decorations.

Paid up donors were feted at a recent party, given by Mrs. Louis Cohen of Elgin Ave.

Sisterhood Observes Jewish Book Month

On display at the Nov. 1 meeting of the Tree Of Life Sisterhood will be a group of the year's outstanding Jewish books. Sound the Great Trumpet, by Meyer Levin, Trial And Error, by Chaim Weitzman, and The Diary of Ann Frank, will be reviewed briefly with discussion following. A Theological Seminary film, titled, And The Bush Was Not Consumed, will be shown.

The meeting will be held at 1 p.m. in the Sisterhood Room.

Mrs. Ben Wald, president, urges that all members bring guests and arrive promptly for the dessert hour preceding the meeting.

Services Mark Anniversary

STOCKHOLM, (JTA) — Impressive services marked the celebration here of the centenary of the Gothenburg synagogue and the 175th anniversary of the establishment of the Gothenburg Jewish community. Representatives of Jewish communities throughout Sweden participated in the ceremonies.

Special - One Week only!

Oct. 30 to Nov. 4 (inclusive)

A REAL INTRODUCTORY SPECIAL

INDIVIDUALLY BOXED

Extra Fancy Roasters

79¢ per pound

Take Advantage of this Special Offer

BUY NOW AND SAVE

WE DELIVER AT NO EXTRA COST TO YOU

PENN KOSHER FOOD CO., INC.

2244 Murray Ave. JACKSON 1-5820

OPEN SUNDAYS

Our Production is under Strict U. S. Government and Orthodox Rabbinical Supervision

ALL OUT FOR MAYOR: The Jewish community of Connellsville will salute their Mayor, Abe I. Daniels on Sunday, when he is honored at the Baldoc Country Club at a dinner to highlight the Israel Bond campaign. Here with Mayor Daniels are leaders of the Connellsville Jewish community, including left to right, seated: Mrs. Jerome Stutzel, Mrs. Norman Bernstein, Mrs. Morton Zacks, Mrs. Bernard Posner, Bernard Posner and Harold Mervis, standing: Charles Daniels, Jerome Stutzel, Morton Zacks, Mayor Daniels and Norman Bernstein.