

Dedication
B'nai Israel Congregation
and
Jewish Community Center
of Connellsville, Pennsylvania

DEDICATION—SUNDAY, MAY 15, 1955
OPEN HOUSE—TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1955

ROBERT AMPER PAYS TRIBUTE TO
ABE I. DANIELS
HONORARY PRESIDENT,
CONNELLSVILLE JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER

God gave him a sympathetic heart
 An understanding mind
The kind of man though traveling far
 You very seldom find.
He thought of women and children,
 Of men grown old and gray
Who were suffering untold tortures
 In prison camps far away.
He thinks of the needy in Israel
 The land our forbears knew
And not for a moment does he forget
 That he, too, is a Jew.
So he gives freely of his means
 Wherever there's a need
And in all charitable work
 You'll find him in the lead.
He gives of himself unstintingly
 When called on night or day
To help those who are in distress
 Their troubles to allay.
May the Good Lord guide your footsteps, Abe
 To you his blessings send
We are proud to have the privilege
 Of calling you OUR FRIEND.

DEDICATION

"With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right—as God gives us to see the right—let us strive on to finish the work we are in."

—Abraham Lincoln

HONORARY PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"As I approach the golden anniversary of my residency in Connellsville, I note in retrospect the many changes that have taken place. Of paramount importance was the decline in the Jewish population and religious activity. Throughout its history, there have been crises within our religious organization, but this dedication is a testament to our perseverance for Jewish ideals.

Looking back to that desolate period a few years ago when we had no leadership, no organization and ultimately, no high holiday services, it is with humility and tremendous pride that we can now point to this completely remodeled and renovated Synagogue and community center.

As a member of this Jewish community for almost fifty years, I could look back and trace the history of this congregation. But, I have no desire to look back. My eyes are on the future—a future bright with the promise of our rejuvenated Judaism."

Abe I. Daniels

"In necessary things, unity; in doubtful things, liberty; in all things, charity."

Motto of Richard Baxter 1615-91

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is fitting that we dedicate this Jewish Community Center of Connellsville during the year of the tercentenary celebration of the first Jewish religious observances.

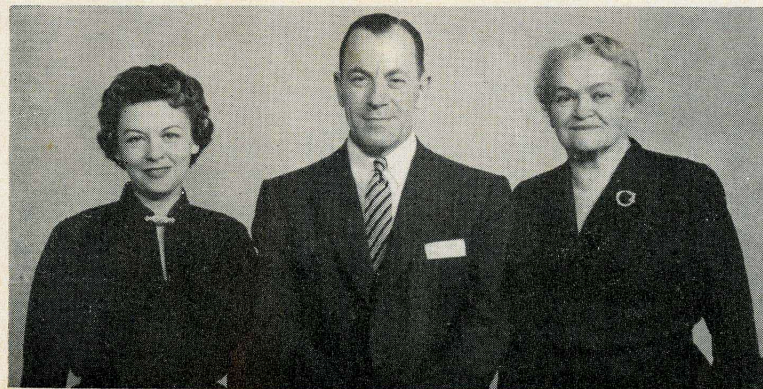

In those early days of the Jewish people they gathered together their simple house of worship for religious services and for a fair measure of social and community life. We, in this new community center, while planning community, social and cultural meetings, had not forgotten that our roots are in the Jewish religion and therefore provision has been made for religious services in the tradition of our faith.

We have therefore continued in the three hundred year old pattern of Jewish community life in the United States—religious services, social, cultural, and community gatherings; all centered in one building, dedicated to the vital and basic needs of a Jewish community.

May we, and our children, always find in this center outlets for our religious and social needs.

Samuel D. Braemer

"It is well to think well, it is divine to act well."
—Horace Mann

Mrs. Morton A. Zacks, Samuel Jaffee, Mrs. Abe I. Daniels

"THANK YOU"

The completion of this booklet and the accompanying dedication of our new center marks the end of the old and the beginning of a new era in Connellsville Jewry. The complete success of these projects is a tribute to the untiring efforts of the members of our Jewish Community.

We could walk among our members, tap each of them and say, "Thank you for your co-operation," but we would not reach the non-members, the boosters, the miscellany of people so necessary to every organization's success.

We take this means of expressing our heartfelt gratitude to all who helped make this dedication a memorable event in the history of Connellsville Jewry, and generously evidenced their support of our endeavors.

It is therefore with sincere appreciation that we say "THANK YOU" to our many tireless co-workers and to our generous supporters.

Mrs. Morton A. Zacks
Mrs. Abe I. Daniels
Samuel Jaffee

"I will give thee thanks in the great assembly,
"I will praise thee amid a multitude of people."
Psalm: 34

BRIEF HISTORY

Traditionally, a program of this nature usually includes a history of events leading up to the dedication. Unfortunately, our records are practically non-existent and recollections are vague. Consequently, statistical and factual data will be limited.

On December 19, 1898, a charter was granted to the B'Nai Israel Church of New Haven. Abe Cohen, Z. Melnick and Jacob Rosenblum were listed as directors and the following men were incorporators: Charles Cohen, A. Marcus, M. Perow, Jacob Rosenzweig, Louis Zadikow, Israel Wayne, Jacob Rosenblum, Morris Levinson, Harry Mervis and Jacob Rinsbur. Recollections reveal that Charles Cohen was the first president.

Several years later, the congregation purchased a lot in Snyderstown for the purpose of building a Synagogue. Before this project could be undertaken, the congregation had the opportunity of purchasing the present building on N. Pittsburg Street from the United Presbyterian Church, which they did on May 13, 1910.

This congregation elected Jacob Rosenblum as its first president; Jacob Sapolsky as vice president; I. Aaron as treasurer, and Mark Mace as secretary. Among others, the names of I. Bowytz, Abe Cohen, L. Featherman, A. Frank, Charles Kravitz, Max Levine, S. M. Levy, Joseph Mervis, H. Rhodie, Emanuel Horewitz and Louis Sine were prominent in this era of Connellsville Jewry, and were instrumental in helping establish the present Synagogue.

In recent years the following men were active in the Synagogue and held responsible positions: Samuel Barasch, Louis Barron, Gerald C. Davidson, William Goldstone, Julius Harris, Gerhart Horewitz, Jacob Horewitz, Leon Kingley, Frank Kotler, Samuel Oppenheim, M. M. Snyder, and Frank

Sternberg. Foremost among these is Abe I. Daniels. In times of stress his guidance, far sighted leadership and perseverance, proved invaluable in preserving a vestige of Jewish life in the community.

Connellsville's first Jewish Spiritual leader was Rabbi Rosenson who was succeeded by several rabbis, of which the last resident was Rabbi Kurt Metzger

Always prominent in local Jewish history, and especially so in recent years, is the Connellsville Chapter of the National Council of Jewish Women which was organized in 1919. The Council was responsible for the operation of the Sunday School and was affiliated with the Southwestern District of Religious Schools. Due to the lack of facilities in the Synagogue, they felt keenly the need of establishing a meeting place for religious and social activity, and therefore spearheaded the present remodeling program.

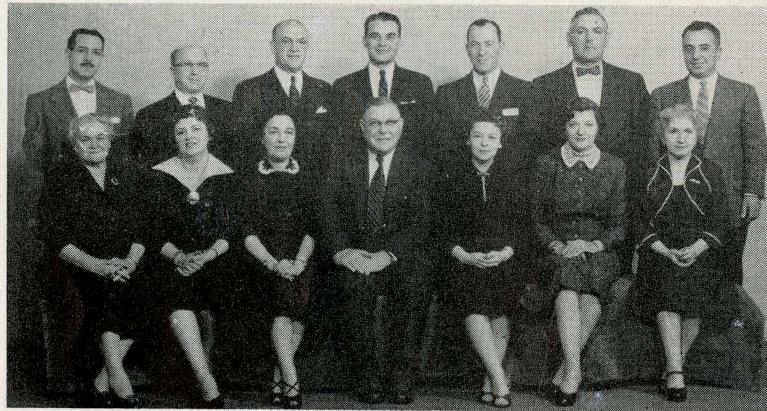

The work on the remodeled, renovated and extended building was begun in the fall of 1953 and was completed in September, 1954, in time for the resumption of High Holiday Services.

The present Roster of the B'Nai Israel Congregation and Community Center includes 39 family memberships.

Names of many of the men who took leading rolls in the affairs of Connellsville Jewry are still prominent on the local scene, others have long gone; and if any of their names have been omitted, surely the reader will overlook it, since the satisfaction of achievement is all the compensation anyone will want.

This newly remodeled edifice stands proudly as a monument of progress and growth in Connellsville, symbolizing the religious aspirations and dreams of our present generation who have dedicated themselves to the service of God and mankind.
