

Our Neighboring Communities

Braddock, Pa.—The dance held by the younger set of Jewish girls of Braddock, Pa., April Twentieth for the benefit of the Jewish Relief Fund, proved a huge success.

Thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sulzbacher of Braddock and Mr. Hostetter, the Ladies' Auxiliary of Braddock for the donation of cakes and for helping to make this affair a success.

The Misses Sara Lincoln and Doris Salzbacher were chairmen, and assisting in selling tickets were the young men and women in surrounding towns.

Brownsville, Pa.—The Temple Club of Brownsville, numbering among its members fifty of the younger Jewish element of Brownsville and vicinity, has shown some lively activity in the short time it has been organized.

It is the aim to put on a play shortly, and from the progress of the few first rehearsals its success is assured. Mr. H. Silverman who is directing the play, assisted by Mr. Al Fineberg, have worked hard and expect to put on some novel stunts that will long be remembered in the community.

After the meeting held recently, a very elaborate program was arranged by the social committee, which included singing, a novel quartet, dancing and buffet luncheon.

The officers of the organization are as follows: President, Mr. H. Silverman; Vice-President, Miss Edith Cooper; Secretary, Dr. H. Reiter; Treasurer, Miss Ethel Wise.

Dr. H. S. Reiter, formerly of McKeesport, Pa., is now making his home in Brownsville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown, of 421 Front Street, entertained at a luncheon and dinner in honor of her daughter, Miss Anne Elaine Brown, and her fiance, Mr. A. L. Litman, of Pittsburgh. Covers were laid for twenty. Pink roses were used in the decorations.

Those present from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Saul Rothman and daughters Leah and Anne Elaine and son Lawrence of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. J. Price and son Arthur and Mr. Louis Brown of Cherleroi.

Homestead, Pa.—On Sunday, April Twenty-third, about fifty families assembled at the Synagogue to witness the examination of the Hebrew school children. The ninety pupils who receive daily instruction congregated in the school room, and it was a revelation to most of the parents to see how well the little boys and girls read the Hebrew text of the Bible, translated the words into English, read sentence after sentence, explaining the root of every word, and giving the tenses of each word, until several chapters of the Bible were gone through.

At the school room the Hebrew writing of the children was prominently displayed for the inspection of the visitors. The Homestead children demonstrated to the satisfaction of all present that an American Jewish child, if the seed of the Jewish faith is implanted in him in his youth, that the seed falls on fertile soil.

Thanks are due to Mr. M. Fishel who has provided three prizes for the pupils who have made the best progress in their studies for the past six months. The winners of the prizes were: Pauline Schwartz, Helen Weinberger and Sylvia Hausrath.

Dr. Winkler, who has charge of the school and who is ably assisted by Mr. Wintner, deserves great credit for their diligent and patient efforts in teaching the children.

Parents of Homestead will please take notice that beginners' class is being formed, and now is the time to have the children enrolled.

Duquesne, Pa.—An enthusiastic meeting of the Young Women's Hebrew Association of Duquesne was held last Thursday evening at the club rooms of the Y. M. H. A. Miss Sallie Mazer, president of the Pittsburgh Y. W. H. A., the speaker of the evening, gave an inspiring talk. Miss Yetta Falik and Miss Ruth Sobel rendered several pleasing vocal duets. A delicious lunch was served.

The officers of the Duquesne Y. W. H. A. are: President, Miss Freda Halpert; Vice-President, Miss Tiby Hoffman; Financial Secretary, Miss Florence Sobel; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ethel Rosenzweig; Treasurer, Miss Ida Shrager.

East Liverpool, Ohio.—On Sunday, May Fourteenth, the Jewish community of East Liverpool, Ohio, will dedicate its new $40,000 Temple. In view of the fact that there are but thirty members included in the membership of the Congregation, East Liverpool Jewry may well be proud of its synagogue, which is one of the most beautiful and modern equipped of its size and kind. About $20,000 was raised through the members and friends, a number of non-Jews also contributing towards same.

The officers of the Congregation are: Gus Bendheim, President; Jacob Stein, Vice-President; Gus Rickersburg, Secretary; Benjamin Green, Financial Secretary; Leon Rubin, Treasurer.

The Sisterhood, which boasts of 100 per cent. membership, offers the members of the congregation splendid support and is responsible for a number of successful social and religious activities. There are forty-five children enrolled in the Religious School, which is under the auspices of the Sisterhood.

McKeesport, Pa.—In one of the most successful campaigns ever conducted, the Jews of McKeesport raised $14,013.23 toward the $14,000,000 drive to help the starving millions in Eastern and Central Europe. Although it was a sectarian drive, non-Jews contributed $1,370 to the fund.

Chairman Henry Friedman is gratified by the result, and he, as well as the committee in charge, desire to thank everybody who helped to make the campaign a success.

E. A. MCGINNIS & CO., INC., VANITY SHOP

Pittsburgh is always foremost, possibly the most talked of city in the world. Every native son and resident should be proud of Pittsburgh and its accomplishments. Possibly it is the location or its natural resources; maybe its the atmosphere, who can tell? There are locations where they grow better and more delicious fruit, but for real pep, quicker action, more decisive results, beat Pittsburgh if you can.

Industry, art, education, and let's not forget VANITY! It is so refreshing, after all. We all need a little dolling up after the work is done. Let us be just as smart in our personal appearance as we are in business. Paris, London, Vienna do not offer better service along this line than does Pittsburgh.

Above we show one of the world's most reliable VANITY SHOPS, where men and women can have the most exacting personal service. Everything from having an artificial eye lash made to getting an unruly corn removed.

The staff of trained operators in this establishment takes care of everything you may wish. Hairdressing, manicuring, permanent waving, electrolysis (the removal of superfluous hair and facial blemishes), chiropody, scalp and facial treatments, hair goods, toupees and wigs; in fact, everything for your personal adornment and foot comfort.

The MCGINNIS ESTABLISHMENTS patrons come from far and near and it is the one place Pittsburghers have had in mind for service of this sort for the past twenty-five years, and this paper heartily endorses its services as the best to be had anywhere.

B'nai Israel Congregation, East Liverpool, Ohio, Build Beautiful Temple:—Overcoming seemingly impossible financial obstacles, a handful of East Liverpool, Ohio, Jews got together and erected one of the finest Temples in this section of the country.

At a cost of approximately $50,000 the synagogue was completed and dedicated in the fall of 1922 and since then it has created such a favorable impression that delegations have been sent from various communities to view what is considered the newest creation of the architectural mind.

The auditorium, located in the basement, is used exclusively for social activities and is so arranged that it reminds one of the Little Theater of New York. A spacious kitchen, an annex to the auditorium, is used by the women for the preparation of the food for the many get-together meetings of the congregation. For the religious education of the children, individual classrooms have been artistically arranged.

A great amount of credit must be given to the women of the congregation, particularly the Sisterhood, for this remarkable building achievement, for it was through their co-operation that the dreams of the members became a reality.

Martin, Orr & Martin, formerly of East Liverpool, Ohio, but now located at Columbus, Ohio, were the architects.

The B'nai Israel Temple was organized in 1892 and the present officers are: G. Bendheim, President; J. Stein, Vice-President; G. Rickersberg, Secretary; B. Green, Financial Secretary, and L. Rubin, Treasurer.

DEATHS

Philip Crystal

Philip Crystal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Crystal, of 2172 Webster Avenue, died suddenly Friday afternoon at the Kittanning Hospital in his twenty-third year. He was engaged in the furniture business in Ford City, Pa., at the time of his death, having started in that business last April First. Besides his parents the following survive: Two sisters, Mrs. J. S. Goldenberg, and Mrs. B. J. Schechter, of Coraopolis, Pa., and one brother, Theodore Crystal, at home. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Shaare Zedeck Synagogue.

The deceased was a member of the Knights of Pythias, No. 229 Madoc, Y. M. H. A., Superior Club, B. P. O. E. No. 11 and Federation of Jewish Philanthropies. The members of the Superior Club acted as pallbearers.

WHEN CHURCH AND HOME SURRENDER

Legislation has created more legal crimes, but it has in no wise diminished the amount of moral crime. On the contrary, the tendency to lift all responsibility from the individuals,

THE JEWISH CRITERION

the home, the parent and the church has simply led to a general relaxation. The fact that the churches have been persistent advocates of reformation by legislation is a humiliating confession that the churches have lost their own power and influences over the lives and conduct of the people. And the spreading mania of clubs and societies to place on the shoulders of the state the duties that properly belong to fathers and mothers is an equally humiliating admission that parenthood is no longer capable.—Akron Times.
