

1957. ápr. 16.

Dear Sir!

You will be probably surprised, because I call you on unknown and I disturb you from the far Hungary with my request. I received an american newspaper in what I your name and adrese found and I take the liberty to call you on with my letter. I am a public functionary and my husband is also, we have four minor childrens /two boys: 11 and 9 year old, and two girls: 5 and 2 year old /and we must to keep our old parents too. My and my husbands salary is so little, that it is only for livelihood enough. I beg you very kindly, will you be, so good and send me somme old clothes.

Sorry to say, I have no relation and acquaintance in America, from whom I could ask for some help, please, vorgive me for disturbing you. I thank you in advance for your goodness very much and I send my kind regards from the distance.

Adress
Cim: Wölcz Endréné

Vác. - town

Hajnik Pál u.l.sz.
Magyarország

Wölcz Endréné

Hungary - with certificates of poverty from minister a civil official.