RABBI
ROBERT A. KAUFMAN

These words from our Torah may well be said at the dedication of Beth Israel Center, for their real meaning is found in the heart of our congregation. The Name and Spirit of God will dwell in the sanctuary of His people, if it is really a SANCTUARY, if it symbolizes effort, sincerity, and honest desire on the part of our people to bring Judaism and Godliness into our lives. God will be among us if we build for Him a sanctuary which represents the highest ideals of the traditions of Jewish life. He will dwell among us if, through our efforts to build a sanctuary, we also build a community dedicated to His purposes.

I believe our new Beth Israel Sanctuary and School does symbolize the spirit of a vital and positive Jewish community. It could never have been built had it not been for the devotion and self-sacrificing spirit of many in our congregational family. The hours of labor freely given here would be very difficult to measure in material terms, but it can be measured in spiritual terms, and it is here where the cup of our faith overflows. Yes, we have made a sanctuary for the honor of the Lord, and the good of man. May his spirit never cease from dwelling among us.—AMEN.

BETH ISRAEL CENTER—A COMMUNITY EFFORT

DR. JACQUES L. WEISS
President 1958-62

In the Summer of 1958, Jewish residents of the Baldwin, Whitehall, Pleasant Hills area took giant steps toward the formation of a new synagogue to serve the fast developing Southeastern suburbs of Pittsburgh. Sparked by Dr. Jacques L. Weiss, local business and professional people, and Bettis engineers and scientists, people motivated by the same ideals and needs, formed Beth Israel Center, registered sixty-five pupils in nine grades of Sunday School, and twenty pupils in a twice weekly Hebrew School.

More than one hundred and fifty people attended High Holyday services held in the vestry of a Pleasant Hills church. A total of fifty-six original families constituted the structure that emerged from this painstaking beginning.

The Present

BETH ISRAEL CENTER—1963

Now in the Fall of 1963, five years from the birth of the idea, a building exists, thanks to the exhausting efforts of our Building Committee, Mr. J. Edgar Rosenberg, Chairman; Mr. Howard Jacket, Engineer, and many others.

Ninety member families, 117 Sunday scholars, 35 weekday scholars, three Bar Mitzvahs, 280 worshippers at Rosh Hashonah, Friday night and Saturday morning services, a weekday nursery school and kindergarten—these constitute the present.
