

Drama : Photoplays : Music

FULTON

WHAT'S COOKIN'

ANDREWS SISTERS

Jane Frazee Robert Paige Gloria Jean
Leo Carrillo Charles Butterworth
Billie Burke Franklin Pangborn

WOODY HERMAN

and His Orchestra

A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

DAMON RUNYON'S

Butch Minds the Baby

VIRGINIA BRUCE with BROD CRAWFORD and DICK FORAN
PORTER HALL

A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

Big Double Bill at the Fulton

Studded with star names of the entertainment world, Universal's gay comedy musical film, "What's Cookin'," presents its session of mirth and melody on the screen of the Fulton Theatre which started Wednesday, April 22.

The Andrews Sisters, Jane Frazee, Robert Paige and Gloria Jean headline the cast which likewise features Leo Carrillo, Charles Butterworth, Billie Burke, Franklin Pangborn and Grace McDonald.

The 18 Jivin' Jacks and Jills have a conspicuous place on the elaborate musical program which is high-lighted throughout by Woody Herman and his orchestra.

Concerned with the efforts of a radio advertising salesman, Paige, trying to convince his clients that they should sponsor an air show discovered by Gloria Jean and featuring Miss Frazee, the Andrews Sisters and Woody Herman's band, the story affords comedy opportunities for Carrillo, Paige, Miss Burke, Butterworth and others.

Also on the same bill is Damon Runyon's "Butch Minds The Baby" starring Virginia Bruce, Brod Crawford, and Dick Foran.

Ethel Barrymore in "The Corn Is Green," at Nixon Theatre

"The Corn Is Green," the Emlyn Williams play in which Ethel Barrymore has scored the outstanding success of her career, will play the Nixon Theatre for one week beginning Monday night, April 27.

Written partially from the memories of the author's own youth, "The Corn Is Green" is a tender, heart-warming story of a forthright English school teacher who attempts to bring the benefits of education to a begrimed Welsh mining village. Meeting with opposition from the local gentry and indifferent success with her pupils, she is about to abandon the venture when she discovers a spark of genius in a truculent young miner. Under her guidance the lad wins an Oxford scholarship.

Miss Barrymore, of course, plays Miss Moffat, the teacher, and Richard Waring plays Morgan Evans, the brilliant Welsh boy. Edmond Breon, a noted English actor, makes his first local appearance as the Squire and Thelma Schnee plays the Cockney girl who gratifies her lust for life nearly at the expense of Miss Moffat's plans for Evans. Eva Leonard-Boyne plays a shop-lifter turned housekeeper and Esther Mitchell and Marcel Dill are seen as Miss Barrymore's aides in her ambitious project.

Jennie Goldstein at Lando's Central Theatre

A beautiful story of great love and greater sacrifice is the starring vehicle for Jennie Goldstein, foremost Jewish dramatic star now for the first time on the screen, "Two Sisters" is a Jewish talking film with a modern background and setting. Humor is mixed with pathos and the story is tops in screen entertainment. It was directed by Ben K. Blake with incidental music by Joseph Rumshinsky.

"Two Sisters" will run for five days at Lando's Central Theatre, April 24-28, 6:30 p. m. to 11 p. m. continuously on week-days and 2:30 p. m. to 11 p. m. on Sunday.

Pittsburgh Playhouse Offers Musical as Finale

The fifth annual Playhouse musical revue, "Dots and Dash," (the title is derived from the Morse code symbol for the letter V) will bring the Pittsburgh Playhouse season to a close with an intimate presentation of songs, dances and sketches around a theme of topical satire and humor. The production, the seventh and last of the 1942 subscription list, opened on April 21 and will close three weeks later on May 9.

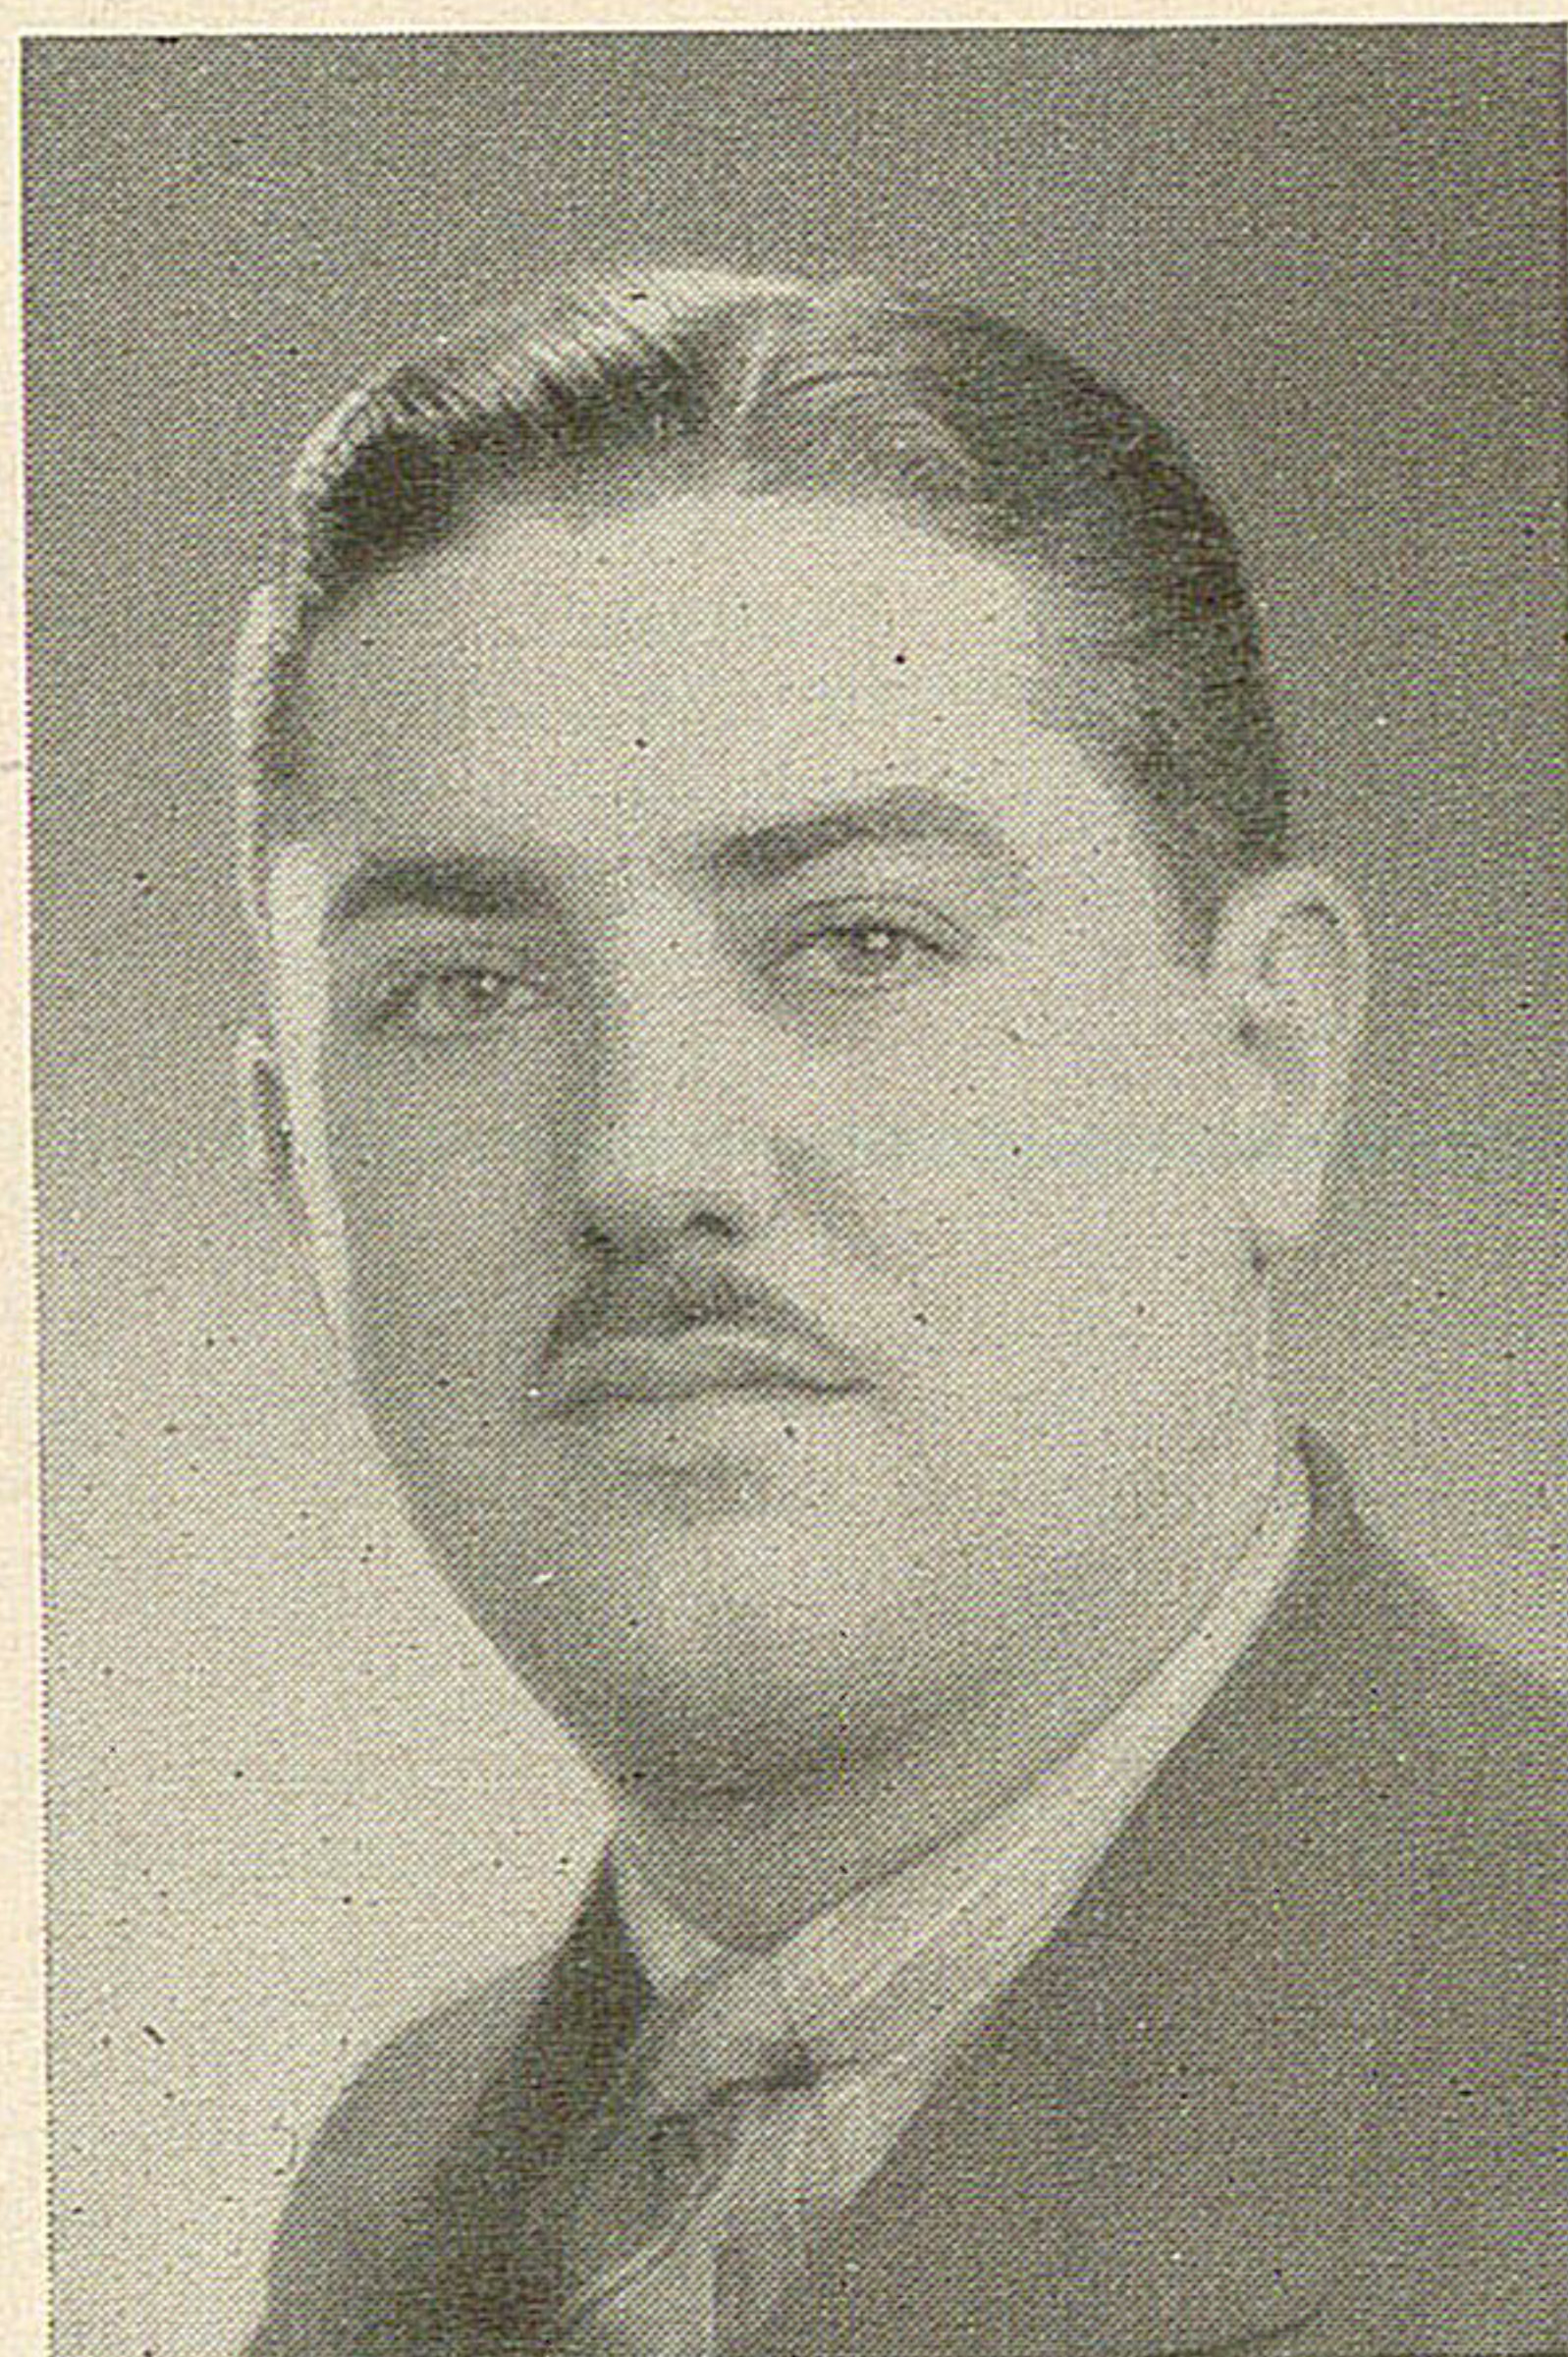

Authorship of "Dots and Dash" is a departure from that of previous Playhouse musicals, all of which were by Charles Gaynor who is about to be inducted into the army. Material for the current revue — music, lyrics, sketches and blackouts — was selected by Mr. Frederick Burleigh, Playhouse director, from that submitted by local authors and composers and arranged by him with dances and specialty numbers.

Lily Pons to Give Closing Beegle Concert

Lily Pons, fascinating Metropolitan Opera prima donna soprano, will give the closing May Beegle Concert at Syria Mosque next Friday evening, May 1. The program will feature operatic arias and classical songs. Miss Pons will be assisted by Frank La Forge, pianist, and Frank Versaci, flutist.

"Y" Health Club Stag Tuesday Night

Offering a menu with serious interest as the main dish, generously garnished with fun, fellowship and entertainment, the 8th Annual Y. M. & W. H. A. Health Club Stag Committee announces that more than 400 Health Club members will get together next Tuesday night, April 28, for the biggest affair of its kind ever held at the "Y." Chairman of Arrangements is Herman Fineberg and Reservation Chairman, Harry P. Letwin.

Herman Fineberg

Underscoring the serious element of the program the Committee will present Jay Allen, well-known correspondent and author, who has just been released from a Nazi prison through the intervention of the United States Government. He brings a vivid, gripping story of dictators at war and the measures they used to suppress European democracies.

SUNDAY FULL COURSE
CHICKEN OR STEAK DINNERS ..... 80c - 90c
WEEK-DAY DINNERS, 50c to 75c
BEACON APT. HOTEL DINING ROOM
5800 MUNHALL ROAD
For Reservations Please Call JA. 4412

An open forum will follow Mr. Allen's address.

A lighter side of the program of artistic and colorful entertainment will carry on throughout the evening. An unusual dinner will be served and at the close of the program an additional snack will be served.

The 8th Annual Stag is for Health Club members exclusively. The reservation list will positively be closed Sunday night. All desiring to attend should contact Mr. Letwin not later than Sunday evening, April 26.

Lando's Central Theatre

1851 CENTER AVE.

Phone COurt 4471

5 Days—Fri., Sat., Sun., Mon., Tues.
April 24, 25, 26, 27, 28

6:30 to 11 P. M. Continuously
Sunday—2:30 P. M. to 11 P. M.

FIRST TIME IN PITTSBURGH

Price: 45c, Plus Tax Children 15c

Jennie Goldstein

IN

"TWO SISTERS"

דו שטערן נאכדשטיין
אין

די צוויי שוועסטער

Incidental music by Joseph Rumshinsky

Yiddish Dialogue English Titles

"ALL THIS IS HEAVEN, TOO"

Living in a great, modern hotel is truly an economic enjoyment these days. Here's what you get at the Roosevelt:

1. Large, attractive room.
2. Combination tub and shower.
3. Personal phone service (in your absence).
4. Choice of three fine restaurants.
5. Distinguished residential address.
6. Special discount for laundry and valet.

MOST ECONOMICAL RATES

... all this is yours when you live at the Roosevelt. You are cordially invited to inspect our rooms. Please ask for Assistant Manager in Main Lobby.

ROOSEVELT HOTEL

PITTSBURGH

CHARLES R. WILSON, Manager

NIXON THEATRE

Week Beg. Monday, April 27

Ethel Barrymore THE CORN IS GREEN

PRICES: Eves.: 2.75, 2.20, 1.65,
1.10, 83c. Mats.: 2.20, 1.65,
1.10, 83c.

LITTLE JACKIE HELLER'S YACHT CLUB

The BEST Show—the BEST
Dinner in Town

For Reservations GRa:t 1114
LIBERTY at WATER STREET

KENT THEATRE

ARNOLD, PA.

May 1 and 2

"Woman of the Year"

DELICIOUS FOOD

Szabatura's Grille

HARRY SZABATURA, Prop.
Phone COurt 8472
529—5th Ave. & 510 Court Pl.
(Opposite Court House)
Pittsburgh, Pa.

VISIT

Bolan's CANDYLAND

East Liberty's Oldest and Newly Modernized

Candy Shop and Restaurant

23 Years in East Liberty

6214 Penn Avenue Emerson 9496