

Vinsky.

Mr. Nathan Ashinsky's class—Harry Simon, Minnie Caplan, Sadie Caplan, Pauline Grudinsky, Fannie Yettelman, Esther Siegel.

Mr. H. L. Bernstien's class—Rose Cinkin, Pauline Feinberg, Elizabeth Gordon, Sadie Levin, Annie Azin, Fannie Broida.

Miss F. Wolk's class—Lillian Morris, Ruth Ashinsky, Rebecca Semenow, Esther Rubin, Nettie Bennett, Gertrude Engel, Rose Shapiro, Anna Kelsky, Bessie Wolk, Pearl Goodman, Anna Tauber.

Mr. Maurice L. Avener's class—Goldie Rosenshine, Bessie Levine.

: o :

FREE LOAN SOCIETY.

The following report will show the splendid work that the Hebrew Free Loan Association has been doing in Pittsburgh for the last ten months, from March 1st to December 31st, 1909.

Balance in the Treasury
March 1.....	$2,471.49
Income .....	502.27
	<hr/>
	$2,973.76
Expenses .....	180.36
	<hr/>
Total on Hand.....	$2,073.40

This means a net increase of $321.91 in the loaning power of the society.

During the above ten months there were 159 applications favorably acted upon, amounting in loans, $3,164.50. The advantage of this society's work is that when a donation is made to it its power for good constantly renews itself. Time and again the Treasurer has received money back from a loan and the same re-loaned to another person.

Among the donations received

MORTGAGES

INVESTMENTS

M. M. LEVY

Proper investment of ESTATE FUNDS and collection of income and insurance on same a specialty.

1406 MACHESNEY BUILDING

— Bell Phone 2710 Court — were the following: Congregation Tree of Life, $25; Beth Hamedrash Hagodal, $4.20; Congregation Beth Jacob, $2.74; Roumanian Congregation, $1.15; Mrs. Ida Bloom, Burgettstown, Pa., $25.

Donations to the society and due for membership may be sent to Simon Shupinsky, 1224 Wylie Ave., Max Tapolsky, Treasurer, 806 Fifth Ave., or to the office of the Secretary, care Victor Kevey, Beth Jacob Synagogue, Franklin and Townsend street.