

"Take care of the children of the poor, for they shall perpetuate the spirit of the Torah."—The Talmud.

The Pittsburgh Hebrew School

137 CRAWFORD STREET

Rabbi M. S. Sivitz, Principal

The Talmud Torah takes this opportunity to extend to its friends, co-workers and all former pupils the compliments of the season and to express the wish that the New Year will be fraught with health and happiness.

The Talmud Torah was founded in 1885 by Rabbi M. S. Sivitz and is the pioneer Hebrew school of Pittsburgh. The object of the school is to provide religious instruction to orthodox Jewish children, especially those unable to pay tuition fees.

Complete courses in all branches of learning—capable teachers—spacious and comfortable class rooms—particular attention to Bar Mitzvah pupils.

Registration days from Tuesday, September 29th, till Friday, October 2nd. Parents are requested to enroll their children immediately, so that they may be placed in proper classes.

School term begins on the first of the Intermediate Days of Succoth, Monday, October 5th.

ISRAEL LEFKOFSKY, President
Hiland 8636

JOSEPH M. KELSKAY, Secretary