

---

Pittsburgh Hebrew School

Offers Summer Classes

Regular daily classes for beginners and advanced students during the entire summer are being conducted by the Rabbi Zivitz Talmud Torah, the oldest Hebrew school in the city, as well as the tri-State region. A staff of competent teachers, guided by the school's Board of Education, are in charge of the Talmud Torah. Founded by the late Rabbi Sivitz, this Talmud Torah is the only Hebrew school in the Hill District. Tuition at the school is voluntary.

For admission and registration of new students, Kalmen Levin, registrar of the school, should be contacted at ATlantic 4178. Classes are conducted at the Rabbi Sivitz Talmud Torah regularly throughout the year, both winter and summer.