

Sylvia Robinson

Home: 412-521-4262
Office: 412-661-1200

Height: 5'5", Weight 126
Size 10, Hair: brown, Eyes: brown

Sylvia Robinson has been involved in theater since her youth when she was an avid student of drama and modern dance. After marrying, raising her family and participating in civic organizations, her interest was rekindled in 1991 when she appeared as Blanche in Broadway Bound. Recently, Sylvia appeared as Mrs. Frank in The Diary of Anne Frank and Sarah in the comedy, Boca. Her 1997 performance in Something New to Want at the City Theater New Works Festival was awarded Honorable Mention, Supporting Actress.

THEATER

An American Daughter	Jewish Community Center
Old Friends	New Works Festival, City Theater
Something New to Want	New Works Festival, City Theater
Boca	Jewish Community Center
The Diary of Anne Frank	Jewish Community Center
Broadway Bound	Jewish Community Center
Nothing But the Truth	Caravan School
May Moon	Caravan School
Our Town	Caravan School

TRAINING

Point Park Conservatory	Acting for the Camera
Caldwell Theater Company	Voice Control
Point Park Conservatory	Scene Study
Point Park Conservatory	Acting for the Camera
Point Park Conservatory	Intermediate Acting
Jewish Community Center	Monologues, Improvisation
Pittsburgh Center for the Arts	Scene Study
Caravan School of Dramatic Arts	Acting, Modern Dance

AWARDS

1997 – New Works Festival, City Theater, Honorable Mention,
Supporting Actress