House of Shelter.

A mass meeting will be held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Washington Street Synagogue on behalf of "An Old Aged Home," to be established in this city. This project has been agitated for some years, and the time is now considered ripe for active work in this direction. The institution is to be conducted under the jurisdiction of the House of Shelter, and a committee is now looking for a site suitable for both purposes. Prominent speakers have been engaged to address the meeting, among whom will be Rabbi J. Leonard Levy, Rabbi A. M. Ashinsky and Dr. M. Fried. The public is cordially invited to attend. All are welcome.
