

Congregation Beth Jehuda of Manchester

Elaborate arrangements are being made for the dedication of the New Synagogue building of the Beth Jehuda Congregation, for many years the only congregation in Manchester, which will take place this Sunday afternoon, August 29th, at 2 o'clock. The building was secured after much expense and effort on the part of the members and it is with much enthusiasm that the plans for this affair are being completed. Well-known speakers and an excellent musical program are being arranged for the occasion. Refreshments will be served. The new Synagogue is located at the corner of Adams and Chateau Streets.

In announcing the sale of seats for the high holydays, the officers of the congregation extend a hearty invitation to the residents of Manchester and the North Side to attend the first services in the new synagogue. Rev. Alex Spokane, well-known Talmudist, has been secured as the religious leader of the congregation. Rev. Spokane is well known as a Talmudist and teacher and in addition to conducting the services during the high holidays, will reorganize the Hebrew School. Parents living in the community are urged to enroll their children directly after the holidays. Additional announcements will be made later.

Schilicoth services will be held Saturday night, September fourth, at twelve o'clock.

Tickets for the holidays may be secured now from Mr. Gilbert Robin, Secretary, 1618 Beaver Avenue. Early reservations are advised.

Officers of the congregation are George Mandelbaum, Pres.; H. M. Reinwasser, Vice Pres.; M. Odel, Treas., and Gilbert Robin, Sec'y.
