

Enoch Rauh Club

On Sunday evening, November 5, the first joint meeting and rally of the Enoch Rauh Club and its six associate clubs was held at the "Y." The club groups present, all having as their leaders members of the Enoch Rauh Club, were the Ralph Schugar Club, the Louis Little Club, the Palomine Delphis, the Ben Lenchner Club, the Hakoahs and the Junior Rauh Club. The greater part of the business of the evening was devoted to the exchange of club work ideas and ideals and also to the possibilities of inter-club activities. Tentative plans were adopted for the joint production of a three act play to be participated in by the members of the various groups.

Following the enjoyable Hallowe'en party held at the Chatterbox- the social committee headed by Herbert Gold, is concentrating efforts to make the Thanksgiving Eve costume party the outstanding event of the club social calendar for the fall. Entertainment of the most unusual kind, together with appropriate costume sketches is being arranged. The committee is also working on plans for a joint social event to be participated in by the Rauh Club and all of the members of the six associate clubs. The nature of this event, which promises to be the most unique party of its kind, will be announced at a later date.

The next monthly stag and card party will be held on Monday evening, November 13, at the home of Albert Zimmer, at which time the club will induct as its most recent member, Samuel Berman of Rose Street.
