

Little Hungarian Restaurant Reopens

This Saturday afternoon, the popular Little Hungarian Restaurant will have its grand reopening after extensive remodeling and redecorating, and featuring the specialties of kosher style Hungarian dishes famous throughout Western Pennsylvania. Imre Ungar's reputation stems from his thirty eight years in the restaurant business. The delicious full course dinners are prepared under the personal supervision of Mrs. Ungar in the immaculately clean, modern kitchen, and the Hungarian cakes and pastries, baked exclusively by Mrs. Ungar are superb. Treat your family and friends to a super special dinner at the Little Hungarian Restaurant, 5800 Bartlett Street and Murray Avenue. Hours 3 to 9 daily—1 to 9 Sundays—closed on Tuesdays.