

Tree of Life Congregation

Sabbath services begin Friday evening at 6:00, and Saturday morning at 9:30.

Services for Yom Kippur take place Wednesday evening, October 5th, at 6 o'clock (Kol Nidre). The subject of Rabbi Hailperin's discourse will be: "Kol Nidre's Challenge". On Thursday morning, services begin at 8 o'clock. The discourse will be "A Reasonable Immortality". Memorial services are held on Yom Kippur Day.

Mrs. A. Leventon has presented to the congregation, in memory of her sister, Bessie Jacobson, a white cover for the pulpit for the High Holidays and one for the prayer desk. The floral decorations for the pulpit on Rosh Hashonah were supplied by Mrs. Louis Amshel, in memory of her parents. On Yom Kippur they will be supplied by Mrs. S. H. Reichman.

The Religious School sessions have commenced for the year with classes on Saturday and Sunday morning, and daily for Hebrew instruction. Bus service has been provided for the conveyance of children from the Squirrel Hill district to and from the Religious School, according to an outlined route beginning at Denniston and Forbes Street, down Murray Avenue, up Pocussett Street, to Wightman, down Wightman to Forbes and down Forbes to the synagogue.

Congregation Toras Chaim, of the East End

Regular services were held Friday evening at sundown, and Saturday morning, September 17th, at 9 o'clock, at the newly-bought building, at 728 North Negley Avenue; Rabbi Jacob Joseph Hurvitz officiated.

On Saturday morning, September 17th, the Bar Mitzvah of Master Samuel E. Shapiro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shapiro, of 825 Highview Street, took place.

Saturday afternoon, before sundown, Sholas Sudas was served by the president of the congregation, Mr. M. Sheckter and Mrs. Sheckter. Zmiroths were sung. On Saturday, September 24th, the Sholash Sudas were served by Mr. B. B. Kaufman, secretary of the congregation.

Every morning, after services, Mishnais is being studied by the members of the congregation, under the leadership of the rabbi. A Chevrah Shaas is now being organized.

Yom Kippur services will be held on Wednesday evening, October 6th, at sundown, and Thursday morning, at 7 o'clock, at the congregation, 728 North Negley Avenue.

Tickets will be sold every evening during the week, from 7 to 12 o'clock, at the Synagogue Toras Chaim, at 728 North Negley Avenue. Tickets may also be procured by calling Mr. M. Sheckter, Hiland 1065-R, or Grant 8316, or by calling Mr. K. Schechter, Montrose 2433.

Congregation Beth Shalom

The Sunday Bible Classes will resume on Sunday morning, October 2nd. Children will please register at the office at 9 o'clock.

Yom Kippur services will start on Wednesday evening, October 5th, at 6 o'clock. Thursday morning, October 6th, at 7 o'clock. At 10:30, Rabbi Rose will deliver the sermon, "Nadab and Abihu, the Two Sons of Aaron."

All children are invited to attend the children's services at the Manor Theater, on Thursday morning, October 6th, at 9 o'clock.

Master Paul Perrin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Perrin, of 5737 Beacon Street, will be Bar Mitzvah on Saturday morning, September 8th, at the Beth Shalom Synagogue.

The congregation and their friends are cordially invited to attend the dedication of a Sefer Torah, presented to the congregation by the Olbum family, in memory of their parents, Jennie and Mayer Olbum, on Sunday evening, October 16th, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Beth Shalom Community House.