

A Reputation Cannot Be Bought It Must Be Earned

For a good number of years, this store has adhered to only one principal — unmatched, unsurpassed quality meats and delicacies of the highest type available. In our endeavor to purvey only the finest and freshest in it's field, quality played the dominant part — our motto:

★ Quality First And Foremost ★

and as a result this store has an enviable reputation that it cherishes very highly, and is ever mindful of the confidence placed in us by our patrons, and the public in general.

Note: The response to our HOT CORNED BEEF and HOT (specially cured) PASTRAMI sandwiches is gratifying. Do yourself a favor (and us too) and have some real soon. They are a treat sensation, we assure you. Lunch? Certainly! We serve a delicious home-cooked lunch — and prime rib tender steaks, as well as full-course dinners at sensible prices.

“NOTHING FANCY — BUT THE FOOD”

All foods, Hungarian pastry and strudle, prepared and baked by our (Mrs. Koszka) Hungarian cook. For the finest foods and delicatessen
