

Torath Chaim Names Permanent Rabbi

The officers and board of directors of Congregation Torath Chaim announce that they have engaged Rabbi Irving Grumer as permanent rabbi for the coming year. The Rabbi assumed his duties Sept. 1.

Rabbi Grumer received his Hebrew and Religious training at the world renowned Torah Center, the Mesifita Torah Vodaath, from which he was graduated and ordained.

The Rabbi also has a B.A. degree from Brooklyn College where he majored in education and psychology.

Rabbi Grumer has previously served in various communities; among them Detroit and Scranton.
