

Formal Dedication of the Agudus Achim Congregation

On Sunday afternoon, December 7th, in the presence of 200 men and women, all prominent representatives of the Jewish Community of Western Pennsylvania, the Agudus Achim Congregation of the Western Penitentiary was officially dedicated. A new Safer Torah, made possible through the generosity of those present, was presented to the congregation.