
HYMAN'S STEAK HOUSE

Mr. Hyman Pascal established Hyman's Steak House at 1619 Center Avenue 14 years ago, and since that time it has functioned as a Pittsburgh institution, building up a wide clientele of lovers of good Jewish cooking. After Mr. Pascal's death in 1931, Mrs. Pascal assumed active management of the restaurant, taking it upon herself to uphold the policy of serving the finest quality of food, prepared in an appetizing, wholesome manner. Hyman's Steak House is noted for its steaks and chops broiled on charcoal, but serves other meats and various dishes which leave nothing to be desired in the way of quality or preparation. A special 35c dinner is served from 5 P. M. to 9 P. M.
