
Hassidic Rabbi

Abraham Leifer

Leaves on Aliyah

Rabbi Abraham Leifer, who left Tuesday, June 2, to settle in Ashdod, Israel, wants to express his appreciation to the Jewish community of Pittsburgh for the support that they have given to the Leifer family for the past 45 years.

Rabbi Leifer also wishes to thank all those who came Sunday, May 31, to partake in the "Tzesche L'shalom", the going-away luncheon that was tendered to him by the Jewish community of Pittsburgh.

Rabbi Leifer further wanted to thank Hillel Academy for allowing the use of the school's facilities for the going away party.

In his remarks, Rabbi Leifer stated, "It is difficult for me to leave such a wonderful community as Pittsburgh. But I must, since heart and souls is in Israel. I urge that those who are able should also make the decision for Aliyah to Israel."