
RECHT'S RESTAURANT UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP

Recht's Restaurant on Murray Avenue has been taken over by two well known business men of this city, and under their ownership bids fair to become one of the most popular restaurants in Squirrel Hill, Eugene Friedman, who for many years was connected with Caplan's Restaurant, is anxious to welcome his new friends in his present location, and Samuel Abrams, his partner, needs no introduction in the restaurant field, and welcomes the many friends he made in East Liberty to his Squirrel Hill eating place. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to come in and look around the clean and modern restaurant at 2016 Murray Avenue, where delicious meals at reasonable prices are available.
